Naked at Noon 1 Jean Le Baptiste, 2014-04-19 Nudist, or naturist, magazines comprising photographs of naked men and women enjoying outdoor activities first appeared as far back as the beginning of the 20th century. Nudist culture boomed in the 1950s and early 1960s, following a landmark ruling which permitted such material to be freely distributed via the US mail. Of course, these publications were not aimed solely at fellow naturists; although their content and context was strictly non-sexual, the ample swathes of female flesh they offered nonetheless provided the average man with the only masturbatory material which was freely available. Jean le Baptiste has assembled from his own collection a stunning array of vintage photographs from these magazines, a collection which takes us back to the unashamed, unclothed splendour of more innocent decades in the sun. Naked At Noon 1 contains over 60 classic images, with many in full colour. For those who prefer women with no tattoos, no silicone, and hair where nature intended.
