My Superhero Grandpa Michele McAvoy,2016-02-10 My Superhero Grandpa is a sweet story about a grandfather who watches over his young grandson from Heaven. The story is told by the young narrator and explains how his grandpa is able to be with him anytime he needs someone because, after all, a superhero has super powers. My Superhero Grandpa likens angels to superheroes and is a sweet way to help young children cope with the passing of a grandparent or to help acquaint a young child with a grandparent that passed away before he or she was born. My Superhero Grandpa uses simple text and ideas with brilliantly colored illustrations to present an uplifting and inspiring story for young children. The story celebrates the love and connection between children and their grandparents.

Contemporary Erotic Drawing Aldrich Museum of Contemporary Art (Ridgefield, Conn.),2005 Encompassing the subjects of sexuality and erotica, The Aldrich Contemporary Museum presents this catalogue from the Contemporary Erotic Drawing exhibition, featuring more than 35 artists. In describing the immediacy and intimacy of drawing, Joseph Beuys once stated, Drawing is thinking, and indeed, for many artists, drawing is a highly personal and revealing process in which raw ideas are expressed, allowing spontaneous imagery or thoughts to emerge. And so, to examine the subject of eroticism and human sexuality, it seems appropriate to examine these 100 drawings. Many of the images seem to work against images in the media, and so define what is erotic and titallating in their own terms. This 204-page catalogue includes drawings in varyious media by artists such as Ida Applebroog, Cecily Brown, Leon Golub, Tracy Nakayama, Mark Dean Veca and Su-en Wong; features two essays by Sue Taylor and Wayne Koestenbaum; and biographical information on the artists.
