PATRICIA. MOFFETT

The Ephemeral Museum Francis Haskell, 2000-01-01

In this illustrated book, an eminent art historian examines the intriguing history and significance of the international art exhibition of the Old Master paintings.

Paper Treasures Lilly Horigan, 2020-05-04 After finally graduating high school, Paige McKinnon is ready to embark on the journey she had been planning for years. Alone, she makes her way to Las Vegas to find her mentally ill and homeless mother. A young woman of faith, she uses only the prompting of God's Spirit and the advice of her aunt to find a place to stay, work, and search for her mother's whereabouts. Her unplanned, but hopeful, trip leads to a quiet community with a big heart in the outskirts of Vegas. Paige meets a woman of faith who encourages and supports her, but Paige hides her reason for being in Vegas even as she accepts a job and assistance from the woman. Paige is amazed by the generosity and vibrancy of the woman. She feels at home around her, but is caught off guard by the woman's loving and good looking son who seems to be at every turn. The young man's life is pleasantly distracted by Paige's beauty and presence, and he hopes to get to know the mysterious girl who is becoming an indirect and daily part of his life. Yet Paige has a specific purpose for being in Vegas and it is not romance. Paige plans her days to find new ways to meet and search the homeless people of Vegas. With the help of her family, letters, and trust in God's sovereignty, she places herself in the midst of the homeless and, at times, risks her safety to find any information on her mother's whereabouts. Not knowing where Paige goes every day after work, the community she is getting to know well grows concerned about her consistent and mysterious leaving for unknown destinations that seem to end in tears.

But to get to the Pro Circuit, you must first pass through the International Race School, a brutal cauldron of wild races on even wilder courses, where only the best of the best will survive. This is the story of Jason Chaser, a talented young racer selected to attend the Race School. He's younger than the other students. He's smaller. His trusty car, the Argonaut, is older. But Jason Chaser is no ordinary racer. And as he races against the best drivers in the world he will learn that at Race School winning is everything, that not everyone in this world fights fair, and that you never ever have any friends on the track.

With over 250,000 followers it has taken on cult status in the international craft community, and that is purely down to Kates fresh, contemporary and beautifully explained and executed craft projects. With a book for children already under her belt, this publication focuses more on adults with 33 pieces including paper gems, an origami lampshade, macrame hangings, pop-up pixel cards, hama bead candle holders, and tie-dyed furoshiki cloths. The ideas range in complexity from the simple to the advanced, but each one is totally unique and has never before been published. The look of the book will reflect the immaculate, Japanese-inflected minimalism of the MiniEco website, with some high-end production finishes including a die-cut, dust-jacketed paperback binding and boldly pared-back photography.
