Myth Management Alex Musson, 2019-10-03 Hilarious, horrifying, and brimming with memorable characters. An inhuman number of thumbs up. Alan Moore (Watchmen, The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen) BATTLE THE MONSTERS SAVE THE WORLD FILE THE PAPERWORK. For hundreds of years, the noble British bureaucracy of Myth Management has maintained the delicate balance between the human and mythological worlds - a thin tweed line between civilisation and chaos. Today, Emily Peasbridge-lanky, bookish and accident-prone-begins her academy internship at their HQ; a sprawling building wedged between dimensions. Here she must administrate creatures of myth and legend, match wits with ancient gods, and battle institutionalised sexism. But when an old enemy rises and mythical creatures begin infiltrating the human realm, it's up to the academy's newest recruits to help them face their greatest challenge. So, keep calm, stiffen those upper lips, and put the kettle on, because you're about to witness... mything in action! A thrilling tale of Greek Myths descending upon London Town. Read this wildly imaginative Paranormal Academy book now! Praise for Myth Management I found myself saying just one more page and then I will finish it later. But, I couldn't put it down... ☐☐☐☐☐ Clever bon mots and turns of phrase, fascinating characters, and large doses of humor. ☐☐☐☐☐ Finally, a supernatural academy novel I can get behind! ☐☐☐☐☐

The Far Woods ,2013 Sarah Burwash has been visiting rural communities and remote areas to attend artist residencies, travelling to different cities for art and craft sales, volunteering on farms and working at lodges in the rocky mountains. The Far Woods is a collection of watercolours and other works she produced during these residencies and travels. These drawings celebrate the wilderness, rural lifestyles and resourcefulness. Burwash turns to past generations who, by necessity, had to be self-sufficient and create systems of mutual dependence among community members. Burwash has been researching and immersing herself in environments where she can learn the stories, skills and gain the experience and perspective from earlier generations to create narratives that uproot her own personal mythologies. She seeks to uncover both humble and provocative histories, more specifically those of women who were brazen and persistent in forging for a new social order. She creates characters, environments and narratives that are lyrical yet quiet, like frozen moments from dreams or nightmares. Her work seeks the threads that connect the past and present, weaving imagery that urges people to wander through the drawings, discovering more upon each view and unfolding questions about our relationships to land, nature, spirituality and community.

The Organization of Craft Work encompasses international analyses from the United States, France, Italy, Australia, Canada, the UK and Japan involving a diverse range of sectors, including brewing, food and wine production, clothing and shoe making, and perfumery.
