Confined Freedom Jeremy Felt, 2013 As a child, Joshua Bryant has the perfect life. He has two parents who love him and want the best for him. But his whole life changes with the death of his beloved mother. His father cannot cope with the loss of his wife and begins to drink heavily and to fight with Josh. Eventually, Josh's father comes to blame him for everything that has gone wrong in their lives. Finding no love at home, Josh fails at school; nothing means anything to him anymore. He feels worthless, and his father's beatings frequently reinforce that feeling. He now leads a life fueled by self-destruction and bad decisions. One night, a fight between Josh and his father goes tragically wrong, and Josh ends up in state prison, with his life seemingly over. At his lowest point, Josh, like many of us, realizes there is a huge void in his life that desperately needs to be filled. This realization brings him to the path of redemption that may ultimately save his life. Confined Freedom follows Josh on his journey from tragedy to triumph as he comes to understand where his hope lies. His story shows us how to achieve true freedom through the glory of God even in the midst of a seemingly hopeless life.
