Paper Animals in Action! Rob Ives,2019-09-18 Perfect for papercrafters of all skill levels and ages, these 12 unique models can actually move — just add a clothespin! Cut out the full-color parts and follow the simple assembly directions to build a bird that pecks, a flying pig that flaps its wings, a dog that nods its head, and a T. rex that opens its jaws. Create a bear, if you dare, and produce a moose or goose! Step-by-step instructions for putting the pieces together are accompanied by color photos. Each project features printed parts to cut and assemble as well as a list of materials such as clothespins and paper clips.

Paper, Scissors, Sculpt! Ben A. Gonzales,2006-08 Score the paper, make a cut, and give it a fold; that's gupit-gupit, the art of creating amazing three-dimensional sculptures. The name comes from Tagalog, the national language of the Philippines, and it means cut cut." Master Ben A. Gonzales, a native Filipino, illustrates all the techniques in this unique collection of paper animals--and both kids and adults will love constructing them. It's easy: Each creature is made from only a single sheet, directions are laid out in a straightforward manner, and the nice large patterns proceed logically from simple forms to the more complicated. (The number of stars next to each project gives the level of difficulty.) Choose from a butterfly, bear, kangaroo, swan, squirrel, Tyrannosaurus rex, whale, and many others.

Does a Kangaroo Have a Mother, Too Eric

Carle,2000-04-01 Do animals have mothers, too? Of course they do -- just like me and you! Once again, Eric Carle reassures and delights children in this colorful album of animal mothers and their babies. Beautifully rendered family portraits of familiar and beloved animals are accompanied by playful text in question-and-answer form inviting children and adults to read aloud together. Come meet the little joey whose kangaroo mother, the flyer, carries him in her pouch. See the lamb nuzzle its mother, the ewe. But don't worry -- we haven't forgotten about the fathers or the rest of their families. Children will love learning the names of animal babies and their mothers, and a bonus page at the back will encourage them to discover more about the natural world. A beautiful way for families to share the knowledge that love crosses all boundaries and ties all creatures on this earth together.

Make Animal Sculptures with Paper Mache Clay Jonni Good, 2010 If you've always wanted to create life-like animal sculptures, but you thought it would be too hard or too expensive, you're in for a very pleasant surprise. This book contains step-by-step instructions and over 250 photos to guide you through the enjoyable process of making realistic animal sculptures in a whole new way. Jonni Good's easy techniques help you create stunning wildlife art without the mess usually associated with papier mache - and the patterns included in each chapter guarantee that your sculptures will be perfectly shaped and proportioned from the very start. Paper mache clay takes about 5 minutes to make, using inexpensive ingredients. Applying the clay to your form is as easy as frosting a cake. It goes on smooth, and dries hard and strong. It's easy to form life-like details like eyes and noses, fur and scales. Then finish your sculptures with acrylic paints to bring them to life. Jonni even shows you how to create your own patterns from original drawings or photos, so you can use her techniques to sculpt any animal you like. Creating life-like animal sculptures has never been so easy, or so much fun!

first lump of clay. You'll be both surprised and delighted by each unique face you create, which makes it addictively fun for both children and adults.
