The Day of the Mountain Timothy Neat, Anne Michaels, 2016 Since entering his eighth decade Neat has concentrated his wide-ranging creativity on the act of drawing, in sketchbooks. His prime subject is people - the common man, writers, artists, travellers, prisoners: he also addresses war, landscape, and the ancient past with visionary understanding. Of the four hundred drawings being published, only three have been publicly seen. In this book Neat, the artist, can be seen for the first time - championed by the great art critic John Berger and renowned writer Anne Michaels: these drawings are revelatory. This special signed edition, produced to the highest specification, is limited to 150 copies and is guaranteed to appeal to collectors of fine art and belle-lettres in Scotland and across Europe. Neat's books include The Summer Walkers, Part Seen Part Imagined, a two volume biography of Hamish Henderson and, most recently, These Faces, a collection of photographs and drawings (2013).

Achtung-Panzer! Heinz Guderian,1995 This is one of the most significant military books of the twentieth century. By an outstanding soldier of independent mind, it pushed forward the evolution of land warfare and was directly responsible for German armoured supremacy in the early years of the Second World War. Published in 1937, the result of 15 years of careful study since his days on the German General Staff in the First World War, Guderian's book argued, quite clearly, how vital the proper use of tanks and supporting armoured vehicles would be in the conduct of a future war. When that war came, just two years later, he proved it, leading his Panzers with distinction in the Polish, French and Russian campaigns. Panzer warfare had come of age, exactly as he had forecast. This first English translation of Heinz Guderian's classic book - used as a textbook by Panzer officers in the war - has an introduction and extensive background notes by the modern English historian Paul Harris.
