But what does this mean for our thoughts, decisions and behaviour? Using the latest cutting-edge neuroscience, Gina Rippon unpacks the stereotypes that bombard us from our earliest moments and shows how these messages mould our ideas of ourselves and even shape our brains. Rigorous, timely and liberating, The Gendered Brain has huge repercussions for women and men, for parents and children, and for how we identify ourselves. 'Highly accessible... Revolutionary to a glorious degree' Observer

What Your Birthday Reveals About You Phyllis Vega,2005-10-01 Astrology meets numerology in this fascinating guide to the secrets of your birth date! Born on December 3rd? You're an ambitious, hardworking "idea person" and a dynamic leader. Born on December 14th? You're the "traveling salesperson" of the zodiac and a gifted marketer. All Sagittarians are charming, intelligent, and adventure-seeking—but which day of the month you're born on can determine the way in which you use those traits to your best advantage. In this exciting new book, master astrologer Phyllis Vega gives a detailed analysis for each birthday in the year, combining astrology and numerology to paint a true picture of the characteristics, desires, and destinies of people born on that day. If you were born October 5th, you're a skilled negotiator with a gift for making money. But if you were born just four days later, you're a compassionate dreamer with spiritual inclinations. Aries is the sign of the determined ram, but if you were born on April 7th, you are idealistic and inspiring. Discover what's revealed in this guide about you, your loved one, coworkers, or even your favorite celebrity in this entertaining, enlightening reference!

College & University Food Service Manual Paul Fairbrook, 1979 Abstract: The successful college food service director has enthusiasm, empathy, dedication, ethics, quality consciousness, an outgoing personality, leadership ability, food service knowledge, business knowledge, close association with other food service professionals, and awareness of and dedication to good nutrition. A new food service director chronologically prioritizes steps to take to reorganize his operation. The manual presents reorganization steps chronologically to include: 1) developing a master plan; 2) setting up a food purchasing system; 3) establishing budgets and control; 4) building a staff; 5) maintaining food quality; and 6) dealing with residence halls, cash operations, vending, sanitation, safety, catering, special events, and public relations. Appendixes and exhibits provide illustrative, helpful suggestions. A food service director's job can be creative, imaginative, challenging, interesting, and rewarding for the director who is on top of things.

Guardian Style David Marsh, Amelia Hodsdon, 2010 A completely revised and updated edition of the Guardian's indispensable guide to good style, used by journalists at one of the world's most stylishly written and edited newspapers

Unsettled Pasts Sarah Carter, 2005 This collection stems from a recent conference at University of Calgary that included some of the most established names in the field of women's history in the US and Canada, as well as younger scholars, activists in the Aboriginal community and in farm women's organisations, volunteers in historical societies working to preserve women's voices, family and genealogical researchers, filmmakers, a poet, a playwright and many others. Designed to generate writing and research about the West through women's eyes, the central goal of the conference was to spark dialogue across boundaries, whether geographic, cultural or disciplinary. The volume is divided into two parts: the first section discusses the role of women in history as community builders and cultural preservationists, and the second section is concerned with gender history in numerous disciplines such as history, education, nursing and communication studies. This collection highlights the extent to which Western and women's history remains a contested or unsettled terrain and argues that the greatest strength of historical analyses that take sex and gender into account is their ability to complicate and consequently transcend regional myths and frontier legacies that emerged out of imperial and masculine priorities and perspectives.
