Damian Lillard Jackson Carter,2020-09-22 At 5'6 no one took Damian Lillard's dream to be in the NBA seriously.He was always considered too short, not explosive enough, or just not destined to be in the world's toughest basketball league. He didn't let any of this stop him from putting up great High School numbers, but still the big colleges didn't come calling. Instead of being frustrated, Damian chose a school that would allow him to show off his unique talents.It became clear very quickly that Damian had found a community that loved his style of play and that he was destined for great things.In Damian Lillard you will here the inspirational story of how Damian Lillard defied the odds and worked himself into one of the NBA's most explosive players.

Grace to Thrive Athena C Shack,2018-10 Some of us who have endured tragedy, loss or the trials of life will eventually come to a place of realization that we have survived. You survived the tests, survived the attacks, survived the sickness, survived the rocky relationships, etc. When you know what you have survived you can truly celebrate and live victoriously. However, there are some people that remain in survival mode. In survival mode, you are defensive, walls are up and safety mechanisms are high. You find yourself mistrusting everyone and self-isolating. In order to live victoriously, you have to transition from survival mode to thriving mode. In this mode, you are not surviving but thriving, growing and prospering. This is the moment you re-define your bliss, maintain your peace and live victoriously. As you use this journal, for the next 30 days, your faith will grow stronger and your hope deeper. Hope sustains us and fuels our faith especially during our most difficult days
