Carrie's Quest Pam Sievers,2020-04-02 Carrie's late mother always stressed, if it's not perfect, it's not worth it. That lesson has served Carrie well in most of her life, but not in love. When Carrie and her sister dismantle the family home, ugly truths about her mother are revealed, and Carrie's perception of perfect unravels as well. At age 38, she is tired of sharing her suburban Milwaukee condo with her two cats. and remembers the advice her aunt always gave her. If a woman doesn't walk down the aisle by the age of 40, she'll be a social pariah. Eligible men will compare her to the day-old meat at the market--okay on the surface, but a little iffy once you open the package. When she realizes it's time to stretch her vision and bury some of her outdated judgements and attitudes, she begins her quest for the love of her life. He does exist, doesn't he? She's not sure why an online dating program would produce better results than traditional methods of dating, but fortunately, her sense of humor helps her survive the search.
