Advent Love Has Come Karen Wycoff Watson,2020-02-22 Advent. What is it anyway? Through the centuries Christians have celebrated this season in a few different ways. By the 6th century, many church traditions tied it to the concept of waiting, with hopeful anticipation, for the coming of Christ. The word advent comes from the Latin word adventus, which means coming or visit. This eventually linked it to Jesus' first coming, which we celebrate as Christmas. The season of Advent is the time of year we reflect on the coming of Jesus. We can also look to His promised future coming as Philippians 3:20 NLT tells us, But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for Him to return as our Savior. Christmas can be a season marked with great hope and true joy, no matter what is going on in our lives, as we contemplate all God has done for us through the fulfilled promise of the coming of the Lord. Advent is also an opportunity for us to welcome the Lord more fully into our hearts and minds, as we marvel at the wonder of Immanuel, God with us. Christmas can be an exhausting time as many extra activities and expenditures threaten to add to already stressful lives, diminishing some of the joy of the season. It can also be a season that brings up painful memories. I think many of us long to do it differently. I can't think the Lord wants us to celebrate this most pivotal time in history by overspending, and overdoing. We can be intentional and escape the fevered pitch of the holidays by slowing down to consider the blessing that Jesus' life among us truly is. We can find our way to joy, even in difficult times, reflecting on what it is to know Jesus. Advent can be a wonderful time of pondering what and Who our hearts truly long for. We can spend less time engaging in mind numbing activities during the Christmas season, and seek the Lord Himself in ways that are soul nourishing and life giving. This devotional was written to help us celebrate the season by looking at scripture that tells the story of Jesus' coming so we are encouraged as we remember anew the incredible gift His life truly is.

The Abingdon Preaching Annual 2025 Charley Reeb,2024-04-02 The local pastor’s go-to resource for weekly sermon planning. The Abingdon Preaching Annual 2025 is Lectionary-based and follows the calendar year (January - December). It includes special days like Maundy Thursday and Ash Wednesday, and indexes for Scriptures and themes, to assist preachers with non-Lectionary sermons. Each entry begins with a preacher-to-preacher prayer for preparation, then moves to the key feature: a commentary on one or more texts for the week, exploring themes and storylines, theological reflections, and thoughts about how the text and topic relate to our lives today. Also included are ideas for bringing the text to life--stories, illustrations, ideas for further reading, questions the preacher might pose to the congregation, and suggestions for a ‘call to action’ in response to the message. Finally, for the preacher’s ongoing enrichment, the Annual includes excerpts from new books on preaching and homiletics. This helpful resource is written by every-week preachers who aim to come alongside you, offering a reliable starting point for your sermonic planning, writing, and delivery.
