Moving the Masses: Bus-Rapid Transit (BRT) Policies in Low Income Asian Cities Suryani Eka Wijaya, Muhammad Imran, 2019-02-25 Public transport in low-income Asian (LIA) cities fails to meet people's mobility needs, generates high greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions and worsens social exclusion. Following successful Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) projects in Bogota and Curitiba, LIA countries promoted BRT in their large to medium-sized cities. However, the political and institutional structure distinctive to LIA cities makes their implementation difficult. This book investigates policy tensions by examining the planning and attempted implementation of BRT projects, taking Bandung and Surabaya in Indonesia as case studies. It analyses BRT to understand how power and communication gaps in institutional relationships between different actors at multiple levels of governance create conflict, and concludes that top-down policies and funding mechanisms cause tension in intergovernmental relationships. It also found that BRT solutions generated socio-political tension arising from the socio-economic realities and local political dynamics that shaped city structure, mobility patterns and capacity in resolving conflicts. The superimposed BRT solution generated discursive tension because conflicting discourses were not aligned with local economic, social, and environmental issues. The book highlights the need to take into consideration the vital role of local social and political actors, institutions and planning processes as they respond to and shape policies that are imposed by higher levels.

Garuda Alexandria Owen Putra, 2015-05-04 Hardikan Tuan Ambassador membuat jantung Karim ketar-ketir. Apa yang terjadi? Kedekatan Karim dengan Jenderal

Mansour tak pelak membuat rasa takut Ipal, sahabatnya, pun berlimbak-limbak. Pesona kota Alexandria seolah tak kuasa membendung kekalutan mereka. Takut berkelebat, cemas mendesis-desis, ragu bahu-membahu, dan kening berkerut-kerut. Untung ayat-ayat-Nya masih membasahi lidah dan jiwa mereka untuk tetap bernyali, berani, dan bermimpi. Di tengah desiran angin yang menyembul, mereka kembali asyik meniup nada keindahan, jari-jemari menari-nari di atas lubang saluang, membawa mereka terbang laksana garuda; dari satu negara ke negara lain. Di etalase berbeda, Laila Lathifa az-Zahra masih harap-harap cemas akan cinta Karim Amrullah, sedangkan Ipal masih menggigil untuk bertutur kata dengan Amira Qatrunada. Bagaimana pelabuhan cinta dua sahabat garuda ini? Akankah Karim dan Ipal terus saling menguatkan untuk terbang tinggi? Garuda Alexandria adalah cerita tentang kegigihan yang mengajak kita terbang dan berdekapan dengan impian, kejutan, dan cinta.

Modeling Ordered Choices William H. Greene, David A. Hensher, 2010-04-08 It is increasingly common for analysts to seek out the opinions of individuals and organizations using attitudinal scales such as degree of satisfaction or importance attached to an issue. Examples include levels of obesity, seriousness of a health condition, attitudes towards service levels, opinions on products, voting intentions, and the degree of clarity of contracts. Ordered choice models provide a relevant methodology for capturing the sources of influence that explain the choice made amongst a set of ordered alternatives. The methods have evolved to a level of sophistication that can allow for heterogeneity in the threshold parameters, in the explanatory variables (through random parameters), and in the decomposition of the residual variance. This book brings together contributions in ordered choice modeling from a number of disciplines, synthesizing developments over the last fifty years, and suggests useful extensions to account for the wide range of sources of influence on choice.

It contains new data, clear images and illustrations and will therefore be useful to gynaecologists, residents, ultrasonographers and medical trainees.

Familiar Medicine David Craig, 2002-06-30 One of the first medical ethnographies to be written on contemporary Vietnam, Familiar Medicine examines the practical ways in which people of the Red River Delta make sense of their bodies, illness, and medicine. Traditional knowledge and practices have persisted but are now expressed through and alongside global medical knowledge and commodities. Western medicine has been eagerly adopted and incorporated into everyday life in Vietnam, but not entirely on its own terms. Familiar Medicine takes a conjectural, interdisciplinary approach to its subject, weaving together history, ethnography, cultural geography, and survey materials to provide a rich and readable account of local practices in the context of an increasingly globalized world and growing microbial resistance to antibiotics. Theoretically, it draws on current critical and cultural theory (in particular applying Pierre Bourdieu's work on habitus and practical logics) in innovative but approachable ways. David Craig addresses a range of contemporary fascinations in medical anthropology and the sociology of health and illness: from the trafficking of medical commodities and ideas under globalization to the hybridization of local cultural formations, knowledge, and practices. His book will be required reading for international workers in health and development in Vietnam and a rich resource for courses in cultural geography, anthropology, medical sociology, regional studies, and public and international health.

AbraVocabra Amy Rider, Randy Larson, 1997-09 Help your students improve their vocabularies with AbraVocabra, a book that makes teaching vocabulary easy and effective. The book includes 24 lists of 12 words--all words taken from newspapers, magazines, and television. The words are practical words that any reasonably educated person is likely to encounter in real life. AbraVocabra includes the following: tip-off sentences to help students figure out what the words mean; simple, student-friendly definitions; lots of ideas for getting the students to use, and thus learn, the words; interesting tests that do more than ask students to regurgitate definitions; and playing cards and instructions for playing the Vocabra game. AbraVocabra has everything a teacher needs to help students expand their vocabularies.

I Like Him, He Likes Her Phyllis Reynolds Naylor, 2010-05-18 Find a Penny pick it up and all day long you'll have good luck...except, of course, if that Penny is charming and pretty and funny, and the person picking her up just happens to be your boyfriend. Alice McKinley's freshman year is not as "lucky" as she was hoping it would be. But she's is trying to look on the bright side. There are worse things than being single for a semester... for a school year...for the whole summer... At least Alice can count on her best friends for support--in theory, anyway. Lately they haven't been all that there-for-her. In fact, it seems like Pam and Liz are suddenly involved in intense, secret conversations whenever Alice is around. Single is starting to feel a whole lot like solo.
