The Renaissance Way Series Tom Faraday,2022-05-07 When William landing to Los Angeles with some European pre-events under his belt, his thoughts and discovered philosophies with his reminiscing interwoven funny conversations of his Los Feliz, Hollywood times, his local further studies and teachings into the acting field and related spiritual realms. In this part of the series he is having The Bayleef family's LA section fully present in his life, an artist social organic unit, a small unknown - once partially leading spiritual force on earth and as he intermingling with them, they'd become his extended family. He is almost taken over by them to their theatre department imagined to be worldwide, a tiny group-outgrow from the current fictitious church, their secret group who would get together decades later again just now after their once 60's of New York life. In failure to pair him with a megastar or suitable actress interior to the church elite celebrity band, the Bayleefs attempt to arrange him with the two youngest grand-daughters...and the youngest cowgirl grand-daughter would show from the southwest. The Bayleef family group mainly step up with their invisible female leadership tendencies but would live with even stronger men in their rows. This part plays the cross to heart at the full throttle of the Bayleefs within his universe, among other colorful characteristics and other spiritual committee representatives in their triumphs how they situated known-unknown with their national heritage claimed. A fictionist church and organization with some vamp symbolism depicted, and social conflict where a full blast preparation takes place to rehabilitate the American Theatre, for the possible victory through his cultural injections, projected by them and with his inner conflict doubting it.
