Blitzen the Conjuror (Classic Reprint) Frank M. Bicknell, 2018-01-18 Excerpt from Blitzen the Conjuror Alvan had been with Mr. Jewett about sh months and had earned rather more than fifty dollars that he had not received. He was naturally careful and conscientious, and until to-day, except for a few unimportant break ages, had been fortunate in the matter of debits against his reserve fund. Now, as he stood waiting before the book-keeper's window, he was miserably uncertain whether he was to get any money at all. After a few moments of calculation the young lady opened the cash drawer and laid before him bills and change amounting to four dollars and seventeen cents. The Sleigh Bell Letters - the Story of Blitzen Martianface Productions LLC, 2015-02-09

The I's of the World Blitzen A. Giannopoulos, 2022-11-03 In life, each individual is faced with many choices as well as challenges. It does not matter how rich, how poor, whether one is young or old, male or female. No one ever makes all the right choices in life. Parents generally try to guard their children from all of life's adversities. Regardless of how hard they try, this is an impossible task. Each life is exposed to fears, horrors, challenges, and choices. With the proper teachings and applied wisdom, better decisions in life can be made by anyone, even infants. This book was written with the attempt to stimulate each person's thought process on different viewpoints in life. Not just their own views but the views of others as well. Not just to blindly follow but to question their thoughts, words, and actions. Each person's choices may be influenced by others, but the final ultimate choices are that of each individual. This book is way too short to have all the answers. It's even way too short to have all the questions. It was written to help point the seekers in life to the answers they are asking.
