The Figure in the Carpet Henry James,2011-04-01 Like many of Henry James' short stories, The Figure in the Carpet revolves around an artist whose body of work hides a deeper meaning and several other characters who bear the heavy burden of a momentous secret. When a group of friends unlocks the true significance of a misunderstood novelist's oeuvre, the weight of this knowledge bears unforeseen -- and terrible -- consequences.

Carpet Capital Randall L. Patton,1999 The book summarizes the development of the American carpet industry from the early nineteenth century through the 1930s. In describing the tufted carpet boom, it focuses on Barwick Mills, Galaxy Mills, and Shaw Industries as representative of various phases in the industry's history. It tells how owners coordinated efforts to keep carpet mills unorganized, despite efforts of the Textile Workers Union of America, by promoting a vision of the future based on individual ambition rather than collective security.

Decorating with Carpets Heather MacIsaac,2015-10-27 Decorating with Carpets: A Fine Foundation taps the extensive and remarkable archive of Stark Carpet, the premier purveyor of carpets to the trade, to demonstrate the essential role a carpet plays as the bedrock of any design scheme. Illustrated with photographs of rooms designed by America's finest decorators, this handsomely designed volume explores the full range of carpet types and textures and shows the impact the choice of carpet has on the color, texture, and atmosphere of a space--

Carpets of the Art Deco Era Susan Day,2015 The revolutionary art and design of the early twentieth century produced textiles, particularly carpets, of extraordinary vitality. First the flourishing Art Deco movement spread bold patterns across Europe and America, before giving way to sophisticated Modernist abstractions influenced by Bauhaus, Cubism, and collage. In just a few decades carpet design was transformed into a showcase of the avant-garde, as legendary artists and designers such as Picasso, Poiret, Gray, Delaunay, and Klee created dazzling, influential works of art still valued greatly today. Beautifully and extensively illustrated, Carpets of the Art Deco Era charts the evolution of carpet design during the period, celebrating the results of a particularly rich era in the decorative arts. An important visual survey for any textile arts shelf, this volume is now available again in a compact, accessible format.--Publisher summary.

Carpet Manufacture F. (Fred) Bradbury,2012-01-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR(Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.

Black Tickets Jayne Anne Phillips,2011-11-16 From one of our most accomplished writers: the reputation-making debut short story collection that paved the way for a new generation of writers. • "Brilliant ... Phillips is a virtuoso." --The Chicago Tribune Jayne Anne Phillips's reputation-making debut collection paved the way for a new generation of writers. Raved about by reviewers and embraced by the likes of Raymond Carver, Frank Conroy, Annie Dillard, and Nadine Gordimer, Black Tickets now stands as a classic. With an uncanny ability to depict the lives of men and women who rarely register in our literature, Phillips writes stories that lay bare their suffering and joy. Here are the abused and the abandoned, the violent and the passive, the impoverished and the disenfranchised who populate the small towns and rural byways of the country. A patron of the arts reserves his fondest feeling for the one man who wants it least. A stripper, the daughter of a witch, escapes from poverty into another kind of violence. A young girl during the Depression is caught between the love of her crazy father and the no less powerful love of her sorrowful mother. These are great American stories that have earned a privileged place in our literature.

The Carpet From Bagdad Harold Macgrath, 2021-02-22 George P.A. Jones is an oriental rug merchant, a timid man afraid of the opposite sex, and he longs for romance, for love -- to love a woman and by her be loved. Filmed in 1915 as the first feature film by cinema pioneer William Selig.
