Final Fantasy The Play Thomas Emmett, 2020-05-09 Final Fantasy. The video game series that made up most of my childhood. It all started with Final Fantasy VII on the PlayStation, and eventually covered every single game that came out, from I to XIII. This book series has been my life project. It began about 20 years ago when I was in middle school, and it is now finally coming to be. The fourth in a series, this book is done in true Final Fantasy fashion. It features characters, locations, weapons, magic, monsters, and items from the games, along with the comic mischief that the games are known for. The only difference here, is that this series is written as a play. In this fourth book, the party has just suffered a major setback. Uncertain of what to do next, they seek out the Master Archer, Norbert. He gives them rest, additional training, and shares his wisdom. All this in order to motivate them, and help them recover from their discouragement. He also speaks about a mysterious island to the north. Will the party find what they need most in order to continue on? Find out, in FFTP: Chocobo Island.

Chocobo's Dungeon 2, 2000 Chocobo and Mog travel through a mysterious world finding powerful spells, treasures and monsters. This game book offers the best tips and strategies for players to trek through every level, with guide features such as bios, character descriptions, and enemy lists.
