Red Army Auxiliary Armoured Vehicles, 1930–1945

Alexey Tarasov, 2021-07-07 During the 1930s in the Soviet Union a remarkable range of auxiliary armoured vehicles were produced for the Red Army which have rarely had the attention they deserve, and Alexey Tarasov's photographic history is the ideal guide to them. These innovative designs demonstrate the diversity and innovation of the Soviet arms industry. Among them were armoured flails, ambulances, bridge-layers, flame-throwers and amphibious cars which prefigure similar designs made by western engineers during the Second World War. As this selection of rare photographs shows, Soviet designers were in many ways ahead of their time and it was short-sighted internal policy and the shortcomings of Soviet industry which led to the cancellation or postponement of many of these promising projects. As a result, when faced with Operation Barbarossa in 1941 the Red Army lacked the auxiliary armour that would have helped to stem the German advance. Alexey Tarasov's in-depth research and the rare photographs he has assembled give a fascinating insight into a little-known aspect of the history of Soviet armoured vehicles.

Tankograd L. Samuelson, 2011-07-26 A major production site of Soviet KV and T-34 tanks in WWII, the town of Cheliabinsk in the Urals was nicknamed 'Tankograd', its civilian machine-building factories swiftly converted to arms production. This book gives a social, economic and political panorama that describes everyday life in a typical Soviet company town during the Stalin era.

Contains detailed artworks of individual tanks with specific captions, as well as orders of battle, unit commanders and formation badges.

Russian and Soviet Tanks 1914-1941 Maximino Argüelles Martinez, 2014-02-17

Why was the USSR as a nation which in 1940 developed a tank as advanced as the T-34?. 100 pages trying to answer these and other questions with a description of the principal armored vehicles and the formations in which were integrated from its beginnings in the Russian Empire until June 22, 1941.

World of Tanks - The SU-152 and Related Vehicles

Yuri Igorevich Pasholok, Dana Lombardy, Christopher Parker, 2017-05-19
In 2012, the company that created World of Tanks, the phenomenal world-wide massive, multi-player online game, started publishing a series of books in Russian that utilized Soviet documents and archival materials that had never before been seen by outsiders or published in any language about the design, procurement, development, manufacturing, and combat employment of Soviet armored fighting vehicles (AFVs) during World War Two (the Great Patriotic War to Russians). Now these remarkable books are being published in English with the obvious aphorism The Russian View. Hundreds of photos, illustrations, tables, and diagrams tell the story about the development of the SU-152 tank-killer.

Hitler's Great Panzer Heist Anthony Tucker-Jones,2007 The prowess of the German panzers is the stuff of legend, but it is not generally known that Hitler stole thousands of British, Czech, French, Italian, Polish, and Soviet tanks and armored fighting vehicles to feed his war machine. At its height, more than 25 percent of the German tank fleet was of foreign origin. In this meticulously research investigation, Anthony Tucker-Jones tells this hitherto unrecorded story, describing how captured fighting vehicles were reused by the German military throughout World War II.

Fuerzas Acorazadas Rusas y Soviéticas 1914-1941
Maximino Argüelles Martínez,2013-07-08 El origen de este trabajo está en una lejana noche de guardia en el año 1996 y la lectura de un artículo sobre la batalla en profundidad y la evolución de la doctrina ofensiva soviética durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. ¿De donde surge esa doctrina y las formaciones acorazadas que la llevan a la práctica?. ¿Porqué fue una nación como la URSS la que desarrolló en 1940 un carro de combate tan avanzado como el T-34?. 100 páginas que tratan de responder a estas y otras interrogantes con una descripción de los principales medios acorazados y las formaciones en las que se integraron, desde sus inicios en el Imperio Ruso hasta el 22 de junio de 1941.
