Le Contre-ciel Rene Daumal,2005-03-01 For this early 20th century French poet-philosopher, life, in its most dynamic sense, can only be experienced after the facade of self-identity has been systematically negated through a kind of metaphysical suicide. In Le Contre-Ciel, Daumal invites us, his readers, to go through this process of regeneration-through-negation with him in order to revive in ourselves a knowledge and understanding of our primordial sources.

L' Arc-en-ciel de Vincent / Vincent's Rainbow Ethan Safron,2018-06-07 This volume combines Vincent van Gogh's love for painting and the French language in a work that can entertain and educate parents and children alike. Even-sided pages have the original painting, plus a sentence in each language describing the scene. On the odd-sided pages, thumbnails of the work can be found with hues separated. For instance, Starry Night has three thumbnails: yellow for the stars, blue for the sky, and green for the foliage. The selection of paintings includes Starry Night, Bedroom in Arles, The Night Café, and more. Most of the paintings were done during Vincent's years in France, a period that gave us the spellbinding style for which he is known to this day. Color, language, and imagination come together in Vincent.
