They are working dogs, problem solvers, and clowns, and they are very independent. What is it like to have a corgi? A friend said it this way: "You think you have a corgi, but the corgi has you." This book is the story of Tipper, a rescue alpha female Pembroke corgi that by chance was acquired by the author and his wife. Details of their experiences over fourteen years make up the vignettes in this tribute and serve as counsel for those considering inviting a corgi to be part of their households.
