Where the Fireflies Dance Kate Grasso,2023-06-01 Disney history comes alive as two live streamers find love in the shadow of Sleeping Beauty Castle. But with one of them hiding a dangerous secret, their fairy tale romance might just unravel into an unhappily ever after. @LeahMetotheMagic I remember the day I met LucaDisNerd. A Disney creator and live streamer like me, he showed up in my world like a breath of fresh air when I felt like I was drowning. Lucas was like the best Disney day ever combined with a churro combined with a dole whip with extra pixie dust on top. He was the male equivalent of myself, obsessed with park history the stories of Disney's artists and Imagineers. But unlike me, he was free. Free with his laughter, free with his smiles, and free to be totally, unequivocally himself. Lucas reminded me of what I had lost, and who I aspired to be. But I could never let him know the darkness of my past. Or who was leaving threats in my comments. No one could know, least of all Lucas. I had to keep him safe, even though I could never be again. @LucaDisNerd She was breathtaking. Beguiling. And mysterious as the dark side of the... wait. No. More like she was... hiding something. But Leah's brilliant mind coupled with her knowledge of all things Disney made her more appealing than a Jolly Holiday combo paired with a Raspberry Rose Macaron. LeahMetotheMagic was someone who finally understood the depth of my love of Disney because she loved it too. She was thrilled to obsess over the history, the secrets, and the trivial details that no one else seemed to care about... no one except me, that is. Leah fell into my life like she had belonged there all along, and making her laugh became my new favorite Disneyland attraction. There was just one thing: Leah wouldn't let me in. She held back a piece of herself for some reason, and I got the sense that she didn't believe she deserved a happily ever after. I couldn't wait to prove her wrong. Inspired by the author @disneycicerone's experience as a Disney Parks live streamer and content creator, this clean-read romantic suspense weaves obscure Disney history and all the Disney feels together in a novel designed specifically for anyone who calls the Disney Parks their home.
