Daniela Niemeyer

The Church, the People, and the Age Robert Scott, George William Gilmore, 1914 There can be no doubt that the churches of to-day do not fully satisfy the religious needs of mankind. Often the most religious natures are those that hold themselves aloof from the Church. I find the main reason for this is that the churches cling too tenaciously to some old formula that is becoming more and more antiquated, so that the Church loses touch with the spiritual life of the present.... If the churches cannot find the courage and strength for such a course, they will find themselves becoming more and more estranged from mankind / Rudolf Christoph Eucken. p. xx-xxi.
