Five Heroes Paul Firecape,2021-06-16 A long, long time ago, the world was submerged with total darkness. Great spirits, terrible creatures, and fallen demons were in complete control. Spirit king Dyeus introduced duality; light would exist with darkness, and darkness would exist with light. The establishment of new positive elements leads to the defeat of Chaos. However, humankind misused freedom and created evil, leading Dyeus to vanish into oblivion, leaving her lover Andromeda devastated. Unable to control her anger towards humanity for sending away her lover, Andromeda unleashed Dread the Draken to strike havoc on humanity. When the Dread makes its landing in Edinburg, it defeats a hundred soldiers with just two breaths. It then sends a message to the council through Mirk that he has kidnapped Ula, Dyeus' daughter. The Dread demands that the council should send a fighter to the magical crystals Meriedem cave to fight him if they want Ula to stay alive. If the council fails, Dread will fulfill his desire to render humankind extinct. Why does the Dread ask to fight one man at a time while it can defeat a hundred fighters with only two breaths? Will the council agree to send a single soldier, or will they launch a full-scale war? Will Ula be saved, or what is her fate in the hands of the Dread? Will the people resume their everyday lives, or will the world go back to Chaos? To have a taste of the full experience, grab your copy and follow along with the unending series of uncertainty and unrest for humankind. Along the way, you will fall in love with some characters, but be prepared to dread others!

Ancient Dreams JP Roth,2020-05-21 "My tale starts with a 'once upon a time' — A long time ago, beings lived who could control the elements, immortality, and time. We called them gods and gave them our worship. They played with us like toys, took our lives and sabotaged our love. Now, the gods are myths. Stories in books—not to be confused with our modern world. I believed this until I found myself tumbling into a dream. This dream takes me to another life. To a forgotten time in a bloody age. I dream of Hades's son and a lustful goddess. I dream of limitless power and revolving time. I dream a death and love that was mine... My name is Cara Wynter— and this is my story." Cara Wynter is a literature student living with her twin sister, Lily, in Fairhaven Washington. A daughter of witches, touch brings Cara only pain, and dark visions of pasts and futures she can rarely change. Already fighting to exist in her strange reality, she begins to crumble when the reoccurring dreams of her own death begin. In a desperate attempt to unlock the secrets in the violent images, she finds herself lost in a contest between love—and the will of the ancient gods. With only forgotten memories and the pages of a book to guide her, she struggles to understand her past and break a deadly curse. Cara must face her worst fears—to save the soul of a god she has treasured for centuries, and a love she cannot live without.

Saab 35 Draken Mikhail Putnikov,Matheu Spraggins,2010 Sweden's most famous fighter, hailed by some as a fighter pilot's dream, was developed and built by the Saab company between 1955 and 1974. Designed with the Cold War situation in mind, the Draken was specially tailored to Sweden's needs. Several versions of the aircraft were developed to undertake a wide range of tasks. The J 35A, J 35 B, J 35D, J 35F, and J 35J were fighter versions, with the J 35J staying in service with the Flygvapnet (Swedish Air Force) until 1998. The innovative, tailless, double-delta design of the Draken proved to be amazingly successful and ushered in a whole line of more sophisticated successors. The aircraft was exported to Finland, Denmark, and Austria, where the last J 35D was retired in 2005.
