Classic Speedsters Ronald Sieber, 2021-11 Classic Speedsters: The Cars, The Times, and The Characters Who Drove Them chronicles the most significant vehicles ever to have traveled American roads and racetracks. Speedsters were the pizzazz cars of their era. Speedsters were owned by entertainers, captains of industry, the wealthy, and in some cases, the everyday guy or gal. They were often expensive, but always fast and sexy. Speedsters were America's first sports cars. Each chapter frames the birth and evolution of a company that produced a speedster model in its lineup and includes a biography of a famous owner of the period. This book traces the journey of the speedster concept across several time periods and among twelve automotive companies. It answers three fundamental questions: • Why were these cars so important and influential? • Why did so many prominent people own them? • What message do they have for modern design?

In the span of five years, their company created four unique aircraft engines and was involved in the development of others. Duesenberg Aircraft Engines: A Technical Description contains over 100 illustrations and describes the aircraft engines from this nearly forgotten chapter in Duesenberg and aviation history.

His knowledgeable, accessible text, accompanied by historical images, crisp detail shots, and studio-quality photographs, conveys with precision and unfailing interest the driving power of the great American engine.

Fred Duesenberg's Final Journey Ray Wotkowski, 2023-10 This book tells the history of Fred Duesenberg's final journey based upon facts. Those facts come from people who actually saw, touched, drove or owned the Murphy body, Duesenberg Model SJ, J-298 Fred was driving. Facts also come from contemporary public records and visits to the scene of the accident. This is a car story, which was made possible by the contributions and support of many car enthusiasts and friends. Fred Duesenberg's fateful journey began in Philadelphia and his legacy is forever present in the Schellsburg, Jennerstown, and Johnstown Pennsylvania communities. Several 1932 newspaper accounts and published books contain differing descriptions, derived from word of mouth, or second-hand information, or reporters taking sensational liberties, a journalistic practice prevalent at the time. There are questions that remain unanswered and records, such as a state police report, that either do not exist or have not as yet surfaced. The Classic Car Assistant Editor, Chris Summers' note: The September 1981 and October 2004 issues of The Classic Car both included stories on Fred Duesenberg's accident at the wheel of one of his own cars and subsequent passing. However, the well-known story has never been covered or fully researched in depth until now...and, as is often revealed by detailed revisiting of a long-lived tale, there is a lot more left to tell. Enjoy the journey into the past and this special tribute to one of the greatest automobile pioneers of all time.

50 Cars to Drive Dennis Adler, 2008-05-01 A gathering of votes from famous and prestigious drivers such as Carroll Shelby, Bob Bondurant, Sir Stirling Moss, Dan Gurney, and Jay Leno, this book reveals—for the first time—what the professionals list as the best of the best. This is a full-color book that will please anyone who's passionate about driving, even with more mundane transportation. "There are cars," says the author, "and then there are those greater than the sum of their parts." The expert panel picked the top fifty, largely avoiding traditional choices they call simply "fundamental to automotive history." This panel agreed that the Top Five list includes the 1957 Ferrari Testa Rossa, the 1913 Mercer Racabout, the 1932–37 Model SJ Dusenbergs, the 1955 Mercedes-Benz 300 SLR, and the Maserati Birdcage. Stunning full-color photos complement the passionate text from expert drivers in a book that will rev up the RPMs of many a man (and woman).

The Siamese Twin Mystery Ellery Queen, 2013-02-05 Trapped on a burning mountain, the Queens take refuge with a killer Dashing detective Ellery Queen and his father are driving over the pothole-scarred Arrow Mountain road when they come face to face with a wall of flame. They tear back in the other direction, fire at their fenders, and finally find safety in a clearing, at the home of Dr. Xavier, a renowned surgeon. He is a genial man, but his distracted, mysterious smile conceals dark secrets. Passing through one of the drafty hallways, Ellery's father is startled by a pair of eyes burning in the darkness—the eyes of a monster. Could they be trapped on some kind of mountain of Dr. Moreau? Dr. Xavier introduces them to the rest of his household, including his wife, brother, and medical assistant. Everyone's welcoming, but they also seem anxious and cagey. When the good doctor is found shot to death in his study, Queen realizes that he and his father have more to fear than a pair of sinister eyes. The Queens may have escaped the forest fire, but they have leapt into a situation that is every bit as hot.

Duesenberg Dennis Adler, 2004-03-14 Fred and Augie Duesenberg were a pair of driven, determined, nomadic masterminds. And to them, the automotive world will forever owe a great debt of gratitude. It took many years, and their achievements were hardly overnight successes, but eventually the brother created the ultimate in automotive engineering: the fabulous Duesenberg. Few were made, and only a relative handful remain. The Duesenbergs of the 1920s and '30s were so remarkable that they had little competition. With the help of E.I.Cord's fearless leadership and financial backing, the brilliant coachwork of the world's greatest bodybuilders, and Fred Duesenberg's mechanical genius, no two Duesenbergs were outfitted the same, and none have ever been truly rivaled. In Duesenberg, Dennis Adler has compiled the ultimate written and pictorial history of the car that was corrected billed as The World's Finest Motor Car.
