Eviscerated J. Thiele,2017-08-18 EVISCERATED ~ By J. Thiele You may ask if this is a Horror or a Sci-Fi? One thing is for certain it is not a Romance - This read is not for the faint of heart or gore squeamish. Those who have read it already mentioned the following word in their description - grisly, gruesome, violent, bloodthirsty, bloody, brutal and savage.Rookie Detective Dylan Palmer is handed a case that nobody else wanted. He was hitting brick walls until Senior Detective Chris Wood (AKA Woody) is ordered to assist. The body count keeps mounting, but the list of suspects is underwhelming. Chief of Police Paul Boehmke is desperate to put the perp behind bars, but that is easier said than done. With not enough clues left behind to know who, or what, is responsible for the killings, can they work together to discover - if the 'Truth really is out there?'

Weights and Cooked Yields of Broiler Parts Related to Eviscerated Carcass Weights (Classic Reprint) Joe Phil Hudspeth,2019-02 Excerpt from Weights and Cooked Yields of Broiler Parts Related to Eviscerated Carcass Weights Poultry processors, food service managers, and others concerned with controlled-portion products may choose from numerous broiler cuts in meeting their various needs. This booklet is intended to reduce the chance involved in such decisions, minimize variations in portion size, aid in costing products, and suggest the inter changeability of cuts by showing the relation ship between each of 25 cuts and the carcass, both raw and cooked. The information was derived from a study of 960 broilers weighing from less than 1 pound to pounds (2-pound average weight) 52 These were cut up by one of eight commercial techniques. In all, broiler pieces were cooked. In using the cooked-yield data (tables 8 and it should be kept in mind that the pieces were cut, frozen, thawed, drained, cooked, and cooled. Since freezing tends to increase cooked yields, the values may be somewhat higher than one would expect under commercial conditions. Eviscerate Danielle Renino, 2023-08-23 HyveFest has everything an elder emo could hope for in a music festival; the best bands in the genre, mosh pits, and an ample supply of nostalgia. For Mallory, it's a refuge. When Jared, a popular influencer and notorious bad boy, goes missing during the festival, her safe haven becomes a source of trauma. Mallory is consumed with guilt over Jared's disappearance. She was the last person to see him alive, and the events of that night are too horrific for her to admit to anyone-even herself. So on the anniversary of his death, she and her motley crew of online friends meet IRL to figure out what happened to him. She hopes it will be enough to finally put her demons to rest, but instead, Mallory and her friends become trapped inside the same place Jared disappeared. Someone blames them for his death and won't stop until they're all punished. Forced to participate in a series of increasingly sadistic games, secrets they've tried to keep hidden are brought to light. Tensions rise and even as their trust in each other dissolves, the group must work together to find out what really happened to Jared... Or be picked off one by one.
