Adventures in Foodland ,2004

Adventures in Foodland NHS Health Scotland,2005-01 Adventures in Foodland is a nutrition resource aimed at carers of pre-school children and especially carers of very young children in the 0-3 age group. It aims to help carers encourage their charges in developing a taste for healthy eating and becoming more physically active, and to promote oral health. It provides activity ideas for youngsters to get involved in the kitchen - learning simple cookery skills such as how to measure ingredients and finding out about healthy eating. The 'Food & facts' section of Adventures in Foodland is a useful tool for carers in reflecting and updating practice: it gives guidelines on nutrition for babies, toddlers and 3-5 year olds, including weaning, meal ideas and coping with food refusal. The 'Activities' section contains food-related craft ideas, recipes and ideas for simple food-growing projects, all designed to help children learn about the world around them and how to communicate their understanding, as well as discovering that food is fun.

The Wicked Turnip in Christmas Foodland K P George,2023-11-03 This is a special rhyming story version of 'The Wicked Turnip in Christmas Foodland' made for younger readers. Dive right into the heart of the holiday season with a book that's as fun and festive as a plate of Christmas cookies! Picture this: Foodland is rocking around the Christmas tree, and every character you can think of is there. We've got Mr Pizza, Mrs Carrot with the triplets, Mayor Cauliflower and many more. Even Chief Elf Delain is making a special guest appearance all the way from the North Pole! But wait, who's that rolling in with a frown? It's Turnip - sour, lonely, and ready to stir the pot. He thinks he's going to teach Foodland a lesson, but little does he know, he's the one in for a big, Christmassy surprise!  Turnip, once bitter, no friends in sight, On a cold Christmas Eve, in the twinkling night. To Foodland, he went, his ways to unveil, Not knowing the past that cast a magical spell. Jingle bells, I hear them ring, But to me, it's just the same old thing. 'Be kind, be nice, ' that's what they sing, But I'd rather play and be the mischief king! Meeting his foe, he learned to be kind, In a happy land, a tale of joy, you'll find! Ho-Ho-Ho! Bells rang out, a sign so fine, Santa's here to spread joy right on time.  The Wicked Turnip in Christmas Foodland: the rhyming Christmas story is aimed at children aged 3-9 years. It is written in festive fonts with the most magical illustrations! However, reading ability is very subjective; what will be right for one child won't necessarily be right for another of the same age. As children grow older, they can re-read the story, discover new meanings and enjoy it as much as the first time they read it. It may be suitable for older children, depending on their enthusiasm for the theme. This book, written by neuroscientist Dr Kassi Psifogeorgou, shows that forgiveness is a choice and it can make us feel happier if we wish to. It's a helpful lesson for people of all ages. Operation Befriend Mr Pizza! Kassi Psifogeorgou,2021-05-14 A storybook for 6-10-year-olds that will remind children that genuine friends acknowledge your feelings, celebrate personal growth, and lead you to a happier life. □ Mr Pizza lived in his tiresome, tiny house on the edge of a beautiful valley. He was so cranky all the time, and hardly anyone came to visit. The last time he saw the other food was at the Aubergines wedding. He would never forget that day. How could he? It was the day that changed him! He could still remember the obnoxious Turnip making fun of him with every single detail! His friends are determined to help him by ingeniously sharing parts of their very souls! That's when the magic happens! Join the operation orchestrated by Mr Spinach and his friends. Will they strengthen Mr Pizza's confidence? Will he rebuild trust in friendships? Will he realise how awesome he is? The plan is already set in motion! □ This brilliant story has math problems as a bonus. It will delight and engage children while building their confidence and developing their empathy. The book is written with a larger font size to accommodate children with poor vision.

Food Fears Alison Blay-Palmer, 2016-04-15 The industrial food system of the West is increasingly perceived as problematic. The physical, social and intellectual distance between consumers and their food stems from a food system that privileges quantity and efficiency over quality, with an underlying assumption that food is a commodity, rather than a source of nourishment and pleasure. In the wake of various food and health scares, there is a growing demand from consumers to change the food they eat, which in turn acts as a catalyst for the industry to adapt and for alternative systems to evolve. Drawing on a wealth of empirical research into mainstream and alternative North American food systems, this book discusses how sustainable, grass roots, local food systems offer a template for meaningful individual activism as a way to bring about change from the bottom up, while at the same time creating pressure for policy changes at all levels of government. This movement signals a shift away from market economy principles and reflects a desire to embody social and ecological values as the foundation for future growth.
