Bailing Wire & Gamuza Barbara Vogt Mallery,2003 A memoir of life on a ranch in northwestern New Mexico tells the story of the author's family between 1905 and 1986, and is presented in scrapbook form, with actual family photos, clippings, and other personal mementos; and illustrated with more than 30 historical photos that portray a land of enduring history and the people who walked it: Navajos, Hispanics, and pioneering men and women who came to the Southwest from the Midwest and the East.

Rainy Pass to Fraser River Fred Beckey,2008-06-01 The godfather of North Cascades climbing updates the third of his seminal guides to this wild range. Included are 10 new topos, updated maps, over 100 photographs (75 with route overlays), route information and driving directions. Hikers, scramblers, serious climbers and Northwest rescue organizations, alike, have relied on Fred Beckey's Cascade Alpine Guides for decades to lead them through this wild mountain range. In addition to their comprehensiveness, the books provide a rare combination of aerial photos with route overlays, three-dimensional illustrated maps and climbing topos. The section of the North Cascades covered in this volume is roughly a pie-shaped area bounded by Hwy 97 and the Columbia River to the east, Lake Chelan to the west, and Hwy 20 to the north. Except for glaciers and some year-round snow fields, it's mostly dry, lonesome, open country, with beautiful granite spires jutting to the sky.

Europa Vasconica, Europa Semitica Theo Vennemann,2003 This book presents the theory that the linguistic and cultural landscape of Europe north of the Alps and the Pyrenees was shaped in prehistoric times by the interaction of Indo-European speakers with speakers of languages related to Basque and to Semitic. These influences on the lexicon, grammar, and toponymy of the West Indo-European languages (with special focus on Germanic) are demonstrated in German and English research papers, provided here with summaries, commentaries, and a new introduction in English, and with general and etymological indexes.
