Geebee's Father Dennis White,2004-12-01 Gee Bee's Father features Stump Greene and his girlfriend, Laura, who operate a private investigation business in Denver, Colorado. A prospective customer, G. B. Curtis, ask Stump, a private pilot with his own airplane, to fly to Detroit to investigate the whereabouts of his father, whom he hasn't seen or heard from in years. The father could possibly be a much married mafia don who enjoys the ladies and eliminates friends or enemies, relatives or strangers without second thoughts if they've interfered with his operation. Armed with a healthy advance payment and little else, Stump flies to Michigan, meets his new client at the Pontiac Air Terminal. They go upstairs to the Flying High restaurant, which features excellent views of the airport and its beautiful female employees, who apparently cater to G. B. Curtis and his friends. Then, into every aspect of the investigation, Stump encounters violence, prostitutes and murders in his Detroit search for Gee Bee's Father. Additional flights to Chicago and New York provide him with more of the same.
