Brock Cole

The Giant's Toe Brock Cole,1988 A giant accidentally cuts off his toe and it develops a character of its own.

Giant's Toe Brock Cole,1986-01 The giant, hoeing in his garden, believes he has cut off his toe.

The Giant's Toe Brock Cole,2001-09-04 Once there was a giant out hoeing in his cabbages. The hoe slipped and he gave his foot a mighty wack. 'Ow!' he cried. 'I must have cut off my toe.' But when he found his toe among the cabbages it had changed. It hardly looked like a toe at all. And that is just the beginning of the surprises the giant is in for. Imagine a toe that talks back, meddles in your affairs, and is responsible for the loss of your most precious possessions. The giant is furious. Yet each time he tries to get rid of the toe it reappears in an unexpected way. Only when the clever toe manages to save the day--and the giant--does their battle of wills take a turn for the better.

Sarah Soderlund, also known as Paranormal Sarah, has been psychically gifted since childhood. Her psychic abilities, coupled with her education and extensive astral world investigative skills, provide a unique and fascinating perspective as she describes not only what happened in her haunted childhood home, but why some houses are "alive" and how ghost energy can slam doors, whisper your name, or even manifest as a full-blown or partial apparition.

Two Steps from the End Ray Meddings,2020-04-22 -Who is this man that calms the wind and the sea? -He is the voice: Come follow me. -Behold now is the accepted time, behold now is the day of salvation (2 Cor. 6:2). -Behold, I stand at the door and knock (Rev. 3:20). In the middle of this chaotic world, there is a calm. Be still and know I am God (Ps. 46:10). It started a few years ago when I watched a Dr. Phil show. I saw on the floor a life-measuring stick: zero to eighty years of age. It hit me at the age of sixty-five. I was two steps from the end. That is how I started my journey through life with my Savior. I refer to it as a revolving-door experience. I walked through the doors of this book and took a two-year journey with the Lord through the pages of this book. I came out the other side humbled and a changed man. I know and believe Romans 6:23. For the wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Black Enterprise Titans of The B.E. 100s Derek T. Dingle,1999-04-26 Money has no color. If you can build a better mousetrap, it won't matter whether you're black or white. People will buy it. —A. G. Gaston Black Enterprise's 1992 Entrepreneur of the Century. For more than 25 years, Black Enterprise, the premier African American business magazine, has ranked and chronicled the B.E. 100s—its exclusive listing of the nation's top-grossing, black-owned businesses. Generating more than $14 billion in annual revenue and employing more than 55,000 people, these companies represent a vibrant and often overlooked segment of the American economy. Their CEOs, among the wealthiest and most powerful players in the black business community, have been the vanguard of an entrepreneurial revolution. They achieved greatness despite a lack of capital, diminished access, and even outright racism, using their imagination and drive to seize opportunities and break through barriers. First in the new Black Enterprise series, Titans of the B.E. 100s profiles eleven of these remarkable leaders of the largest black-owned businesses. Covering a broad cross-section of companies and industries, this compelling book features both today's emerging entrepreneurs and the established CEOs, revealing the secrets of how they beat the odds and the hard truths about the myriad challenges they've faced. No other book brings together so many contemporary black business success stories. Through in-depth, first-person interviews, you'll meet the titans who started their companies from the ground up and were relentless in doing so; who filled a void in the consumer market and, in turn, revolutionized whole industries; and who love the companies that they run and are energized by new ventures. Each chapter profiles a different business legend: From John H. Johnson, founder of Ebony and Jet magazines; to Herman J. Russell, who used $125 to create the nation's largest black-owned construction firm; to Emma C. Chappell, the People's Banker, who launched the United Bank of Philadelphia; to Robert L. Johnson, who created Black Entertainment Television and then transformed BET Holdings, Inc. from a single cable network to an entertainment monolith that became the first black-owned business listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Inspiring and motivating, Titans of the B.E. 100s will introduce you to an incredible group of men and women who made a profound impact upon global business, symbolizing a spectacular realization of the American Dream. Praise for TITANS OF the B.E. 100s. Titans of the B.E. 100s challenges the vintage profile of the entrepreneur by showcasing the impressive and dynamic careers of African American executives who surmounted social, economic, and political barriers to gain their deserved place in today's world of the business elite.—Kweisi Mfume, President and CEO, NAACP. Titans of the B.E. 100s aptly documents the achievements of African American entrepreneurs who embody the legacy of the twentieth century and the hope of the twenty-first century. The principles espoused by these esteemed business leaders are essential to the future of the civil rights movement as we prepare our children for self-reliance and our adults for economic self-sufficiency in the next century.—Hugh B. Price, President, National Urban League. The intriguing profiles in this book tell the stories of a group of people who started with nothing and went straight to the top, overcoming obstacles with tenacity, ingenuity, and sheer bravery: Don H. Barden Emma C. Chappell Mel Farr Sr. Charles H. James III John H. Johnson Robert L. Johnson Byron E. Lewis Herman J. Russell Russell Simmons Clarence O. Smith Percy E. Sutton.
