The Christmas Cats in Silly Hats Connie Corcoran Wilson,2011-11 The Christmas Cats in Silly Hats is a Dr. Seuss-like book, with rhyming wisdom, sly humor and colorful characters that will help parents teach their young children that success in life is about learning to get along and work cooperatively. The cats of the story must learn to share and put aside their petty catty spats, in order to be happy and successful. Written for the author's two-year-old granddaughters, Ava and Elise Wilson, with the assistance of two talented young illustrators

(one, the girls' nanny from Venezuela, Emily Marquez), The Christmas Cats in Silly Hats employs a whimsical, non-preachy style, using the rivalry and friendship between two cats to teach a valuable life lesson. The lesson? It is better to learn to cooperate and to share in order to get along in life than it is to be mean and to fight. Andrew Weinert began the illustrations for the book when still a high school student in 2004. Due to a series of circumstances beyond the authors' control, the book languished for eight years until after Elise and Ava Wilson were born in January of 2009. The girls' Venezuelan au pair, Emily Marquez, offered to help bridge the areas of the story that had changed with the passage of time. Now, the book was not just about two cats, but---indirectly---about two children, twin girls, who should learn to be nice to one another. Children of all ages should learn to share and to work and play together nicely. Valuable lessons for any age presented with humor and style in The Christmas Cats in Silly Hats. A labor-of-love Christmas gift for two special little girls and a tribute to the young lady who has taught them so much over the past two years about kindness and being nice to one another.

Anna's Woolen Cap of Many Colors Shirley J. Christenson,2022-08-24 Would you give away something special to help someone else? Little Anna loves her woolen cap of many colors and wears it everywhere. Each Sunday during Advent season she walks to church with her parents. Anna is upset to see Jesus in the church nativity scene with Mary and Joseph. He looks so cold, and she wonders what she can do to help Him keep warm.

Mi pueblo, los amish Joe Keim,2024-07-01 En Mi pueblo, los amish Joe Keim pinta un retrato detallado de su vida más allá de las cofias, sombreros y carros a caballo. Más que una biografía se trata de una mirada franca a las cálidas y queridas tradiciones que se entretajan con un muy arraigado legalismo en la comunidad amish de Ashland, Ohio. Joe Keim nació, creció y se bautizó en una iglesia amish del Viejo Orden y desde su niñez le enseñaron que si no seguía al pie de la letra las veintidós páginas de ordenanzas que regían la vida en su comunidad, no había forma de que pudiera ir al Cielo. Lo que comenzó como un sendero de rebeldía llevó a Joe y a su esposa Esther hasta un grupo de cristianos fuera de la comunidad amish, que los albergaron y los amaron como familia. Les enseñaron cómo vivir esa nueva fe en Jesucristo que acababan de encontrar. Nueve meses después de su tradicional boda amish Joe y Esther dejaron para siempre a sus familias y amigos para vivir abiertamente para Cristo. Debieron soportar el rechazo y la excomunión con fe y coraje. Desde entonces el Señor ha guiado a muchos ex-amish hacia Joe y Esther para que les ayuden. Por su pasión por el pueblo amish y el apoyo de otros creyentes han llevado la verdad bíblica a miles de amish por medio del ministerio que fundaron en el año 2000, Mission to Amish People (MAP) .
