It also summarizes efforts of water conservation and management, and modern approaches for improvement of water resources management and decision-making related to this valuable resource. The authors are specialized in geology and hydrogeology and have been teaching and conducting scientific research on water resources in the UAE for the last three decades. This book represents the main reference on water resources in the UAE for academia, researchers, professionals, students and the general public.

Archive Data Tapes of the AFGL Magnetometer Network David J. Knecht,1979 All data returned by the data-collection stations of the AFGL Magnetometer Network are recorded automatically on a series of magnetic tapes referred to as the ARCHIVE tapes. On these tapes, data are reordered, to effect grouping by instrument, and compressed, to minimize the amount of tape used, but are otherwise in raw form and unedited. This report describes the format and content of these tapes with sufficient precision and detail that a prospective user can, if necessary, access the data without further guidance.
