“Hilarious. Barbara Park makes reading fun.” –Dav Pilkey, author of Dog Man
Get ready to go back to school with Junie B. Jones! The World’s Funniest Kindergartener is now officially a first grader! The #1 New York Times bestselling chapter book series has been keeping kids laughing—and reading—for more than twenty-five years. Over 65 million copies sold! Hurray, hurray for a brand-new school year! Being in first grade means having to get used to a whole new classroom. And a whole new teacher. And a whole new bunch of strange children. But here’s the worst thing of all: When Junie B. tries to read words on the chalkboard, she can’t seem to see what everyone else is seeing! Is it possible she might actually end up wearing glasses?

Stories for You Ricky Kennison,2016-06-29 The book comes from five true stories, with some added fiction in the story about the wasp on the ceiling and in the story about Suks magic dry-cleaning machine. I hope these stories are unique and entertaining.

Brown Beauty Tamana Izat, 2018-08-21 This book is named after the students who are striving to learn, to grow, to educate themselves, to progress, and to aspire for a position, prestige, and promotion but find it hard and so they leave their dreams. This is also named after the writers who have spread their arms, carrying their pens and papers, inviting the readers attention to get their message propagated. This book is also for todays society; peoples allegiances, motivations, and lifestyles; the want to selfishly gratify their desires and leave the pathos and the tragedies of others ignored and neglected. These societies, full of anguish against the privileged class that enjoy their lives without contentment, are actually like autumn leaves, shredded and shaded from yellow to red. This book is a compilation of a seventh grader girls thoughts and feelings, a girl who has plenty to experience and plenty to express and plenty to achieve in changing environments, which would otherwise be next to impossible to accommodate and accept.
