The Loaded Gun Under Your Nose N. Jordan

Mkwanazi,2018-10-09 After 32 years of pastoring I have concluded that the body of Christ and the people of God are victims of the words they speak out of their mouth. The bible profoundly declares in Proverbs 18:21 that death and life is in the power of the tongue. There is a direct relationship between accessing God's promises, provisions and blessing and the words we speak out of our mouth. N. Jordan Mkwanazi has been the Senior Pastor of Metropolitan A.M.E. Church in Austin, TX for over 13 years. He is a tenured pastor with over 32 years of pastoral experience. He is a graduate of Paul Quinn College (Previously located in Waco, TX) and Baylor University in Waco, TX. Pastor Mkwanazi was born and raised in Zimbabwe, Africa and has lived in the United States of America his entire adult life.

Under the Southern Cross Thomas McKelvey

Cleaver,2021-05-13 From August 7, 1942 until February 24, 1944, the US Navy fought the most difficult campaign in its history. Between the landing of the 1st Marine Division on Guadalcanal and the final withdrawal of the Imperial Japanese Navy from its main South Pacific base at Rabaul, the US Navy suffered such high personnel losses that for years it refused to publicly release total casualty figures. The Solomons campaign saw the US Navy at its lowest point, forced to make use of those ships that had survived the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and other units of the pre-war navy that had been hastily transferred to the Pacific. 140 days after the American victory at Midway, USS Enterprise was the only pre-war carrier left in the South Pacific and the US Navy would have been overwhelmed in the face of Japanese naval power had there been a third major fleet action. At the same time, another under-resourced campaign had broken out on the island of New Guinea. The Japanese attempt to reinforce their position there had led to the Battle of the Coral Sea in May and through to the end of the year, American and Australian armed forces were only just able to prevent a Japanese conquest of New Guinea. The end of 1942 saw the Japanese stopped in both the Solomons and New Guinea, but it would take another 18 hard-fought months before Japan was forced to retreat from the South Pacific. Under the Southern Cross draws on extensive first-hand accounts and new analysis to examine the Solomons and New Guinea campaigns which laid the groundwork for Allied victory in the Pacific War.

The Webley Service Revolver Robert Maze,2012-08-20
The Webley .455in service revolver is among the most powerful top-break revolvers ever produced. First adopted in 1887, in various marques it was the standard-issue service pistol for British and Commonwealth armed forces for nearly fifty years; later versions in .38in calibre went on to see further service in World War II and beyond, as well as in a host of law-enforcement roles around the world into the 1970s. Developed to give British service personnel the ability to incapacitate their opponents in 'small wars' around the globe, the Webley used the formidable - and controversial - .455in cartridge, a variant of which was known as the 'manstopper'. Users found it offered good penetration and excellent stopping power with only mild recoil - indeed, it was rated superior to the US .45 Colt in stopping power. Featuring specially commissioned full-colour artwork and close-up photographs, this is the compelling story of the Webley revolver, the powerful pistol that saw service across the British Empire and throughout two world wars.
