David D. Williams

Hydroplane Boats Jeff Savage,2004 Describes the different types of jet-powered hydroplane boats, along with its history, its design, and some of the different competitions that these fast boats participate in.

Hydroplane Racing in Seattle David D. Williams,2006-06-07 Hydroplane racing burst onto the Seattle scene in 1950, and local sports fans embraced it with a passion that is hard to imagine. Throughout the early 1950s, thousands of fans flocked to Lake Washington to watch classic races between Seattle's Slo-mo-shun boats and a fleet of East Coast challengers. For over 40 years, hydroplane racing was synonymous with summertime in Seattle. During its golden age, when hydro fever was at its height, drivers like Bill Muncey, Ron Musson, and Mira Slovak were sports heroes on par with today's Ken Griffey Jr. or Ichiro. Seattle became the hydro capital of the nation.

The Madison Regatta Fred Farley,Ron Harsin,2011-06-14 Each summer, a small miracle occurs in southern Indiana, when the little town of Madison becomes the hydroplane racing capital of the world as 100,000-plus people flock in for the Madison Regatta. The townsfolk, not merely content to host, also own the Miss Madison, one of the most successful hydroplanes on the circuit. In recent years, Miss Madison has emerged as the top hydroplane in the world, winning both the driver and hydroplane points standing multiple times. Roar down the Ohio with Fred Farley and Ron Harsin and revisit the long history of racing in this town and the sixty-plus years of the Madison Regatta.

Hydroplane Racing in the Tri-Cities David D. Williams,2008-06-30 Pasco, Kennewick, and Richland sit along the banks of the Columbia River and form a large, vibrant community in Washington known as "the Tri-Cities." For over 40 years, tens of thousands of fans have come to the Columbia River to enjoy a day in the sun and watch the Columbia Cup Unlimited Hydroplane Race. Famous drivers like Bill Muncey, Dean Chenoweth, Chip Hanauer, and Dave Villwock have all come to Tri-Cities and battled deck-to-deck to win the Columbia Cup.

Madison -- Hydroplane Heritage Fred Farley, Ron Harsin, 2004 Fred Farley, the Official APBA Hydro-Prop Unlimited Historian, and Ron Harsin, life long resident of Madison, Indiana, have written this excellent description of the history of Hydroplane Racing and the Gold Cup which had its start in 1904. In those early days, the boats ran at the Blistering Speed of 24 mph. Today's Unlimited Hydroplanes - The Thunderboats - set the Water on Fire at over 200 mph! These pages are laced with over three hundred black & white photographs, many of which have never been published. A section on the making of the movie Madison is included as it is a large part of the Gold Cup history. The movie Madison is based on the true story of Miss Madison's 1971, come from behind, Gold Cup win. Madison -- Hydroplane Heritage compliments this exceptionally fine film (in theaters soon) by giving the reader the history of the sport and its participants so excitingly portrayed in the film. You don't have to be a dyed-in-the-wool racing fan, you will enjoy Madison - Hydroplane Heritage.

A Race to Freedom David Williams, 2018-04-28 Mira Slovak was born in Czechoslovakia and endured both the Nazi occupation and the brutal Russian liberation. He joined the Czech Air force, rising to Captain by the age of 21. When he could no longer tolerate life under the Communists, he hijacked an airliner and flew across the Iron Curtain to freedom. He went to work for the CIA and was eventually sent to the US and given a job as Bill Boeing, Jr's personal pilot. When Boeing began racing Hydroplanes in the late 1950s, Mira was his driver. During his ten year career as a hydroplane driver, he won many races and two national championships. He met Presidents and dated movie starlets. After a serious hydroplane accident, Slovak switched to airplanes where he won another national championship. When he retired from racing he became a stunt pilot and public speaker and talked about the value of freedom and how we should value it above everything else. He outlasted Communism and when it collapsed in 1990 he returned to his home, only to realize that his true home was, and always would, be the United States.

Hydroplane Racing in Detroit David D. Williams, Hydroplane and Raceboat Museum, 2009-06-15
Since the start of the 20th century, Detroit has been the hub of the motorized world. It was only natural that the powerful motors built in Detroit's huge factories eventually found their way into high-speed boats and that organized racing soon followed. Starting in 1916, Detroit became the center of powerboat racing. Names like Gar Wood, Chris Smith, and Horace Dodge dominated the sports pages of the 1920s and 1930s. Following World War II, racing in Detroit entered its golden era. Led by local businessmen like Jack Schafer, Joe Schoenith, and George Simon, hydroplane racing captured the heart of the community in a way that has never been equaled.

What Were They Thinking Doug Ford, 2012-03-01 The history of unique Unlimited hydroplane designs and their designers

Turbine Racing in Seattle David D. Williams, 2007 Hydroplane racing captured the heart and soul of Seattle in the early 1950s and never let go. No Seahawks, Sonics, or Mariners game has come close to drawing one-quarter of the audience that watches the hydroplanes race. The unmistakable sound of the boats huge motors was as big an attraction as the racing itself. In the mid-1980s, something began to change. The distinctive roar of the old Thunderboats gave way to the whoosh of the turbine. The old names like Muncey and Chenoweth were replaced by new names like Hanauer and Villwock.

Motor Boats, Hydroplanes, Hydroaeroplanes, Construction and Operation, with Practical Notes on Propeller Calculation and Design Thomas Herbert Russell, 1917

unlimited hydroplane is like no other raceboat. Nothing elicits the same response. Why this fascination? Is it the raw power, the speed, the personalities, the majestic beauty, wanting to feel part of something big? Whatever the reason, this fascination has stayed with me (and thousands of others) for a lifetime. This book is organized around a Gallery of Winners for each decade. Every unlimited hydroplane which has won a race since 1946 is profiled. The pages are filled with over one thousand photos, most in color. Fun Facts are found throughout the book, highlighting little know gems about the boats, the drivers and the owners. Boats which did not make the winner's circle are more briefly mentioned, but certainly not ignored. Sometimes much of the drama lies with those who tried so hard and came so close, or tried so hard and got absolutely nowhere! You will find over seventy entries related to Fearless Fred Alter. The wit, wisdom and candor of this very competitive race driver is refreshing and insightful. I have shared my own experiences and over sixty devoted fans have shared their memories as well, including such drivers as Mickey Remund, Tom Sheehy and Steve Reynolds. The glory days of the 1950s and 1960s are covered in detail, but so too are more recent years. The joy of racing and competing is still here. Do I miss the piston roar? You bet. But the racing is just as exciting as ever - if not more so. The stories about the race teams - their struggles and triumphs - are just as compelling. Read about the Such Crusts, the Miss Supertests, Miss Pepsi, Miss Thriftway, the Gales, Miss Bardahl, Atlas Van Lines, Winston Eagle, PICO, Miss Budweiser, Spirit of Qatar, Oberto and more than one hundred other winners!

Swift and Sure Herbert Strang,1910

Hydroplane Susan Steinberg,2006-04 Hydroplane is a story collection filled with the urgency of erotic obsession. Its breathless voices, palpable in their desire, are propelled by monomania, rushing from one preoccupation into another: a garage, a painting class, a basketball game, boys. Their words take on kinetic force, an almost headlong momentum, as though, while reading, one were picking up speed, veering out of control. The past returns. Rumination are continuous. A stranger at a bus stop is indistinguishable from the narrator's deceased grandfather; party guests turn ghoulish, festivities merge with nightmares. Each of Steinberg's stories builds as if telegraphed. Each sentence glissades into the next as though in perpetual motion, as characters, crippled by loss, rummage through their recollections looking for buffers to an indistinct future.
