Seeing All Things Whole Thomas John Hastings,2015-02-06 Kagawa Toyohiko was one of the best-known evangelists and social reformers of the twentieth century. Founder of several religious, educational, social welfare, medical, financial, labor, and agricultural cooperatives, he was nominated twice for the Nobel Prize in Literature (1947 and 1948), and four times for the Nobel Peace Prize (1954, 1955, 1956, and 1960). Appealing to the masses who had little knowledge of Christianity, Kagawa believed that a positive interpretation of nature was a key missiological issue in Japan. He reasoned that a faith, which is rooted in the downward movement of Christ's incarnation, must support the scientific quest and meditate on the purpose or upward movement implicit in scientific findings. Through an anti-reductionist methodological pluralism that strives to sees all things whole, this scientific mystic employed a wide range of Japanese and Western cultural resources to assert a complementary role for science and religion in modern society.

Change One John Hastings,Peter Jaret,Mindy G. Hermann,2003 Devised by leading weight loss experts, this is an easy-to-live with 12-week programme with no calorie counting It works by slowly introducing subtle changes to your eating and lifestyle habits, one at a time, so that you acquire the habits and mindset necessary to lose weight and keep it off. During each week of the programme, you simply change one element of your eating habits. For example, in week 1 replace your usual breakfast with one of the Change One breakfasts, and continue to eat what you normally do for lunch and dinner. In week 2, in addition to eating the Change One breakfasts, you will replace your usual lunch with one of the recipes offered in the book. At the end of 4 weeks, you will have replaced all your usual meals with the healthy, calorie-counted options in Change One and will have built up the habit of healthier eating. Change One is not like other diets. Instead of concentrating on not eating, the emphasis here is on following a healthy eating plan that means you can still eat your favourite foods and you don't need to go hungry. Change One is positive and encouraging: it doesn't say you can never eat out again but instead offers advice on how to eat healthil

Physical Asset Management Nicholas Anthony John Hastings,2009-09-29 Physical asset management is the management of fixed or non-current assets such as equipment and plant. Physical Asset Management presents a systematic approach to the management of these assets from concept to disposal. The general principles of physical asset management are discussed in a manner which makes them accessible to a wide audience, and covers all stages of the asset management process, including: initial business appraisal; identification of fixed asset needs; financial evaluation; logistic support analysis; life cycle costing; maintenance strategy; outsourcing; cost-benefit analysis; disposal; and renewal. Physical Asset Management addresses the needs of existing and potential asset managers, and provides an introduction to asset management for professionals in related disciplines, such as finance. The book provides both an introduction and a convenient reference work, covering all the main areas of physical asset management.

Worshiping, Witnessing, and Wondering Thomas John Hastings,2022-02-07 Focusing on educational ministries, Hastings offers a postcritical, synthetic approach to worshiping, witnessing, and wondering, grounded in scriptural ways of knowing God in Jesus Christ and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Here, lives marked by worship, witness, and wonder are understood not only to be harmonious with the evolutionary endowments of perception, action, and cognition, nor as well-attested practices of corporate and personal religious life, but also as a tripartite gestalt contingent on divine agency and mediated through participation in Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. Hastings describes worship, witness, and wonder as ways Christians participate with a sense of common cause in the mission of the God of love and life, who comes to us in Jesus Christ clothed in his gospel and in the power of the Holy Spirit, who has been poured out upon all flesh.
