Kaito Michelle Y. Richardson,2010-09-17 Born underneath a shed to a stray cat, Kaito is a kitten with an overactive imagination and a love for life. He enjoys snuggling with his brothers and sisters every evening at their mother's side, and he soon learns the basics of being a cat. His mother teaches him how to forage for food, hunt mice, and stay clear of trouble. But this cute tabby learns the harsh reality of life as an unwanted stray when the cruel owner of the shed takes Kaito and his sister away from his beloved mother, then tosses them into a dumpster. Kaito realizes why his mother so feared human beings, and yet he wonders if they are all as bad as this one man. Two adults soon rescue the brother and sister and bring them to an animal shelter. Here Kaito and his sister are adopted by two different, yet loving families, and Kaito starts a new life with his owners: a teenager named Ben, his young sister Kayleigh, and their parents. But will this be a temporary refuge or has Kaito found his forever home? Told through the eyes of a very special orange tabby, Kaito celebrates the way love and kindness can overcome adversity and misfortune. Open your heart to the magic and joy of Kaito!
