THE SIN Seydou Koné,2013-12 A profound friendship is born between two young people, Bamba and Yacou, at the high school and at the university. Become both frames, the medicine declares sterile Bamba. This diagnosis confirms by its incapacity conceiving of his wife, Akouba, an offspring. This one threatens to leave him. Bamba is ready for anything not to lose his wife. He begs then his friend of high school and university to agree to save his couple, by having sexual relations with Akouba. Yacouba grants a favorable continuation at the request of his friend. A child arises from this connection. This birth allows not only Bamba to save its couple, but also to have finally the heir so wished. But its friend Yacou can keep for a long time the secret, seen that the fruit of this relation became a high competent and admired frame?

Faith Without Fruit Is Dead Kone Mphela,2016-08-01 Barack was distraught. She sought the help of her grandmother spiritual leader however she got more condemnation. Luckily God pleased few friends in her path who will share a light of true grace, 1st a high school friend who shared with her the experience of life with Jesus. Barack was willing to follow her but her grandmother refuse to give her a permission to go as she was brainwashed to believe that Jesus is only for Jews not African. Barack sworn to follow Jesus when she got to university however the devil did all he could to make sure she doesn’t get admission. Later we she Barack sharing the experience of Jesus Christ with her family and community and Matt came as Jonah who was send to Nineveh. Matt thought he was going to pursue the love of Barack but God used him to share his love first with the people at Barack village. In the story we learn that it is wise to have friends which has positive influence in our life and to always ask God as he promise to direct our path or step, to give us a spirit of listening or sound mind.

The Willington Secret John Kone,John S. Kone,2000-01-21 The Willington Secret is about the perfect crime. People are being murdered and the bad guys have discovered how to dispose of the evidence without a trace. The story, set in the mid 1960's takes place in a small college town of Willington, Georgia, but this story could happen anywhere.....even in your home town. What makes this story unique is that people committing the horrible crimes, blend perfectly into the Willington community fabric. The town citizens pass them on the streets, eat at the same restaurants, and belong to the same civic organizations, but suspect nothing. The good people of Willington don't realize that, these highly respected, pillars of the community have perfected a foolproof way to commit the ultimate crime and get away with it! The hero is Josh Novack, a student/athelete, whose only goal in life is to make it through college on an athletic scholarship. As a result of an incredible chain of events, Josh becomes committed and involved in the Willington Secret. Now he faces a deadly dilemma: expose the criminals before he becomes their next victim. The villians, however, are thoroughly entrenched in the town hierarchy. They are model citizens, people of power and and position, thus making Josh Novack's task of revealing their secret insurmountable. Although the story is fiction, the recipe used to erase all evidence that a crime had been committed is not. Take certain circumstances common to any community add some unscrupulous, greedy people, who just happen to be engaged in professions that provide the necessary cover, and the result is the formula for the perfect crime. The scariest part is that it could really happen!

Proclaimed Victory of an Orphan Kone Mphela,2016-04-01 Sheila, Angie and Tiny were orphans, however, because of the bitterness in their hearts they turned away from God and closed their heart against anything that concerns God. Consequently, they experienced so many bad luck, God couldn’t impose in their life against their well and help them. They lived like that until one day Sheila turned her heart towards God and from that day God showed her his grace and favor, God saved her from becoming a sex slave and made it possible for her to meet Joshua, who accommodated her and later married her.

Mergers & Acquisitions Annette Risberg,2013-04-15 Mergers and acquisitions remain one of the most common forms of growth, yet they present considerable challenges for the companies and management involved. The effects on stakeholders, including shareholders, managers and employees, must be considered as well as the wider implications for the economy, the level of competition and employment. By drawing on classic research perspectives and placing them alongside more recent alternatives, this book provides readers with a focused yet far-reaching introduction to the study of M&As. Each paper is set in context by editorial commentaries and reflects the important organizational and behavioural aspects which have often been ignored in the past. By providing this in-depth understanding of the mergers and acquisitions process, the reader understands, not only how and why mergers and acquisitions occur, but also the broader implications for organizations. The book is structured clearly into sections concerned with the issues that arise before, during and after the mergers and acquisitions process including motives and planning, partner selection, integration, employee experiences and communication. A unique collection of selected readings and contextualising commentary, this volume will greatly appeal to MBA and graduate students as well as experienced practitioners.

International Business Strategy Peter J Buckley,Pervez Ghauri,2015-02-20 With stagnated demand in many home economies, the need to internationalize and exploit foreign market opportunities has never been more paramount for businesses to succeed at a global level. However, this process raises a number of questions, such as: can firms use their knowledge of one market in the next? Can firms pursue internationalization on several fronts at the same time? How should firms handle cultural and institutional differences between markets? This textbook provides students with the core research in international business and strategy, including organization, efficiency, external relationships and the challenges found in an increasingly multicultural world. Each part begins with a presentation of the issues and controversies faced in that particular area, followed by a synthesis of the research which provides avenues for future research. To facilitate and encourage further debate and learning, each part also includes at least one original case study. Compiled by two of the World's leading scholars of international business, and supplemented with critical commentaries and a range of integrative case studies, this comprehensive textbook provides advanced students of international business and strategy with a resource that will be invaluable in their studies and beyond.

Semper Fidelis E. Lee Kone,2011-04 In Semper Fidelis, a poignant collection of poetry, love comes full circle as poet E. Lee Kone beautifully expresses heartfelt emotions about love lost, love found, and love reborn. Kone begins her collection with poetry written for those who have lost a loved one through infidelity, separation, divorce, or death. She continues her journey into the heartrending moments of longing for someone to love, the invigorating heights of newly-discovered love, the bittersweet feeling after discovering unattainable love, and the joyful rebirth that accompanies new love. Kone then concludes her journey with an emotional portrayal of a wife's tragic loss of her husband during the 9/11 tragedy and a child's pain after losing both parents. Everyone longs to have a lasting relationship with someone they adore. Kone's poems each tell a separate story of their own, all while illustrating that no matter how great the loss, the heart has the ability to adapt, to heal, to trust again, and ultimately to find its way back to true love.

Grammars of Identity/alterity Gerd Baumann,André Gingrich,2004 A short review cannot do justice to the richness of this, or to the problems posed by its analytical framework...This is a thought-provoking, problematic even troubling volume with many excellent chapters. - The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute This book's strength is two-fold. First, as an edited volume it was delightfully cohesive, with each author considering the same set of basic questions, and utilizing the three grammars as a frame for examining identity in their various contexts...The second core strength for me is the fluid treatment of both structural and agentic aspects of identity...I found this a stimulating volume and think it has much to offer for readers interested in better understanding identity processes. - Anthropology and Education Quarterly Issues of the construction of Self and Other, normally in the context of social exclusion of those perceived as different, have assumed a new urgency. This collection offers a fresh perspective on the ongoing debates on these questions in the social sciences and the humanities by focusing specifically on one theoretical proposition, namely, that the seemingly universal processes of identity formation and exclusion of the 'other' can be differentiated according to three modalities. All contributors directly engage with rigorous empirical testing and theoretical cross-examination of this proposition. Their results have direct implications not only for a more differentiated understanding of collective identities, but also for a better understanding of extreme collective violence and genocide.

Revelation for Marriages Kone Mphela,2015-11-01 Revelation for Marriages is about the man and woman who came of age and they are interested in getting married, when they introduce their partner to their parents both parents rejected their choice based on spiritual difference. Coincidentally, both parents meet and they were complaining about the same thing and when they realized that they are both on the same dilemma they decided to arrange the marriage between the two. Initially the man and the woman rejected the idea, but eventually they got married and the most intriguing part of this story is when man discovering the true meaning of love and hidden revelation about marriage on 1st miracles Jesus performed by turning water into wine and also the story of the Samaritan woman and how those 2 miracles are a solution to all broken and loveless marriages. He discovers how can a young married couple survive in this generation, and how to allow Jesus to author the love in the marriage.
