Lee Everett

Legacy Lee Everett, An aging gunfighter. A troubled past. An estranged son. All Johnny Wade wanted was to be left alone. But sometimes you just can't outrun the past no matter how hard you try. Now, he's an aging gunfighter with a legacy he never wanted and a troubled past that he can't escape, a past that others won't let go of either. There are those who want to best him, not for who he is but for what he once was and they'll stop at nothing to do so. But there's more at stake than just his reputation. He also risks losing the woman he loves and a secret that she's hiding, a secret that could get them both killed.

Fugitive Lee Everett, Cord was looking to settle down. But an unexpected encounter with someone from his past changed all of that. Before the dust settles, Cord finds himself a wanted man. And that's not the extent of his worries. Cord must not only elude the law, but also a corrupt territorial judge who'll stop at nothing to get what he wants and a ruthless bounty hunter with killing on his mind. He had thought he could settle down and that his troubles were over, but they've actually just begun.

Lost Gold Lee Everett, He'd heard his grandfather's story before. A long lost gold mine. Is it the fevered ramblings of an ailing old man or is Tom's grandfather telling the truth? Tom isn't sure. No one in his family believes his grandfather's tale of a lost gold mine except for Tom. But Tom's life so far has been filled with disappointment and heartache. That much pain changes a man. Makes him think he has nothing to lose. He sees this as a way to give his life new meaning and to forget his painful past. The only problem is he isn't the only one who has been listening to his grandfather's stories... If you enjoy classic frontier westerns, grab book 1 of The McAllister series today!

Rescuer Lee Everett, This wasn't what he had planned. Cord's life was supposed to change for the better. He had wanted to settle down in Benton Springs and start a ranch, but he discovers that the town is engulfed in fear and corruption. He tries to look the other way, but if he does innocent people will get hurt or killed. Should he intervene? If he gets involved, it means he can never go back to the way things were. If he doesn't, can he live with himself? He has to choose and choose now because many lives are at stake. Starting with his own.

Drifter Lee Everett, His life would never be the same. He was just a drifter on his way to work for an old friend. But being a victim in a failed stagecoach robbery changed all of that. Now, stranded out on the prairie, Cord and the other passengers are fleeing for their lives from a madman and his gang hellbent on dispensing their own form of justice. Cord doesn't want any part of it, but his pursuers don't care about circumstances. The odds are against them. They're all alone, far from help and greatly outnumbered. Will they make it? Their pursuers have plans to kill them all. But if they try, they'll soon find out that Cord Chantry isn't going down easy, at least not without taking quite a few of them with him.

Dark Trail Lee Everett, Only two things brought Luke trouble: A beautiful woman and a woman in distress. Unfortunately for Luke, Callie Johanssen was both. So when he found her out on the prairie he couldn't force himself to turn his back on her. Alone and scared, she convinced him that she needed him. Before he knew it, he had fallen for her and fallen hard. A voice in the back of Luke's mind told him that she was trouble and to just walk away. But Luke had never been good at listening to that voice, no matter how right it always turned out to be.

Showdown In Salt Creek Lee Everett, In this sequel to "Salt Creek", the new railroad has finally arrived in town and with it comes the growth and wealth that it has promised to bring. But the railroad also brings unwanted: men of questionable character. Men who take what they want from others and are not afraid to hurt or kill in the process. Right in the middle of it all is Sheriff Vince Redding, who is trying to maintain law and order. Before long, the townspeople of Salt Creek are thrown into chaos with murder, betrayal and deceit rampant and no one knowing who they can trust and who to fear. Will the town survive? Will Sheriff Redding?

Trouble In Rim Rock Lee Everett, It started with his father's death. He had returned home to take over the family ranch. But there are those that stand in the way and have other plans. Then, a series of events puts him at odds with the law and threatens his very freedom. Now, he is all alone except for one person, a woman. But can the love of a woman be enough to save him or will it ultimately be responsible for his demise?

The Faster Draw Lee Everett, He was a natural with a gun. Cole had always been obsessed with being a quick draw, so much so that he devoted every possible minute to practicing until he was one of the fastest in the territory. But speed brings reputation and that kind of reputation attracts attention from the wrong kind of people. People who have something to prove. Dangerous people. Before he realizes it, Cole finds himself in a deadly situation and backed into a corner with no way out. He didn't want a fight, but here it is. The time for settling this with words is over. Now, he'll have to settle it using lead.

One Stands Alone Lee Everett, When the chips are down, sometimes the only person you can count on is yourself. After years of being away, Tal Thornton has come back home to his family's ranch in Kerney. But things aren't the same as they were when he left. The town, the people and even his family's ranch are different. There is an imposing figure who wants it all, even the Thornton ranch, and is willing to take it at any price. With so much to lose, none of the townspeople are willing to put up a fight, forcing Tal to protect everything he holds dear by himself. The question is, how far will Tal have to go to stop him?

Levi Conley Lee Everett, The Central Continental Railroad has been robbed. Levi Conley, a ruthless bounty hunter, is on the case to recover the money and bring the gang responsible to justice. But this is no normal train robbery and the robbers are not your typical thieves. That will make Conley's job that much harder. And that much more dangerous. Check out this classic frontier western novel by Lee Everett.

Devil Springs Lee Everett, Devil Springs had a dark secret. Because of that, strangers were not welcome there. But, when Chance Lowry came into town he didn't take the hint. He was only passing through when he was told, not asked, to leave. That changed everything. His gut told him to keep moving, but his stubbornness wouldn't allow him to be bullied, and he soon found himself mixed up with something he hadn't anticipated. The threat had become too personal for Chance, and now he was involved in the town's secret whether they liked it or not. Besides, no one told him when to tuck tail and run. No one.

The Silent Gun Lee Everett, Jace McKendrick was as fast with a gun as he was arrogant. Then, an unfortunate incident changes him. Suddenly, being fast is no longer important to him. But his past, and those in it, aren't going to let it go that easily. Now, McKendrick has to face his past, whether he likes it or not, if he wants to stay alive.

Salt Creek Lee Everett, It was a chance encounter between two strangers. An encounter of life and death. An encounter that would change both lives forever, and leave a debt that is owed. Circumstances continue to bring both men into each other's lives, with questions of their loyalty always remaining in the backs of their minds. But will the debt seal their friendship, or bring them to their end? If you enjoy classic frontier western books, you will be riveted by Salt Creek!

The Herdsman Lee Everett, It was an old Indian tale. A valley of wild horses that the natives believed ancestors used to carry brave warriors off into the spirit world when they died. Kauteenowah. A valley known only to the Lakota. A place so sacred it was forbidden for outsiders to venture there. But Will Travis has other plans. Misfortune has all but ruined him. His only chance now is to find the herd and bring it in if, in fact, it actually exists. The ancient ones warn that whoever is unworthy and dares to disturb the valley will die. But desperate men often do desperate things, and Travis is desperate. Now, he is about to see just how real that warning is. If you enjoy classic frontier westerns set in the Old West, you will love The Herdsman!

The Hired Gun Lee Everett, Jonah Gaines had a secret. To the outside world, he was a successful rancher and businessman. But in private, he was a hired gun who was paid to do things that others either couldn't or wouldn't do for themselves. He knew that in that line of work he could expect to make enemies. A lot of them. So when Gaines was hired to clean up a cattleman's depute over some land, he thought it was just going to be another routine job. He was wrong.

Lukas Raines Lee Everett, He went against his better judgment. Though he knew better, he reluctantly trusted strangers. Because of it, he winds up wanted for murder, unconscious, and left for dead. When he awakens, it is as if he is a man without a past. At least not one that he can remember. Scant clues lead him on the trail of those who did this to him. But along the way of finding those responsible, he encounters others whose sole purpose is to see him dead. Will he live long enough to get the answers he wants?

Kinds of Loving Lee Everett Alkin, 1987

Tall In The Saddle Lee Everett, They waited to make their move. Waited until those guarding the ranch were away. Cattle rustlers, waiting until the time was right to attack the Lazy M Ranch, the McAllister ranch. Some will suffer. Others will die. When the McAllister brothers return, they find their home, and their family, in shambles, and their herd missing. But the rustlers are in for more than they bargained for. Because when you wrong one McAllister, get ready to fight them all.

The Savage Trail Lee Everett, He wanted no part of it. J.D. Logan was on his way to his brother's home in Wyoming when he found them. A wagon train of settlers, lost and desperate for help.

Agitated by their presence there in the territory, Logan considers leaving them to their own demise, but his conscience won't allow it. But once he gets involved, he quickly realizes that there is much more going on here than can be seen. Secrets, conspiracies, betrayal and greed all come out. And before it's over, people will die. If you love classic frontier westerns with lots of action, this book is great for you! Perfect for fans of Louis L'Amour.
