The Worlds Most Powerful Handgun Vince M. LEWIS, 2017-10-16 The Worlds Most Powerful Handgun features a custom revolver that was made for a Swiss gentleman by the name of Mr Zeliska. The Austrian company that manufactured the revolver was called Pfeifer Waffen Feldkirch after the founder Klaus Pfeifer in 1978 and together the revolver achieved worldwide acclaim as the Pfeifer-Zeliska Magnum. The internet was awash with cobbled together stories of this revolver and a good 80% of them were mishmashed together from my website (that no longer exists.) I had the original photos and technical data from Pfeifer Waffen Feldkirch, so I knew what I was writing about. There was a lot of misinformation and disinformation at that time, and I straightened most of that out. Pfeifer Waffen Feldkirch even previewed my website and was happy with my information. So now you can access all the correct information again in one complete volume, with new inclusions and updates in this new format. If you have never read about this revolver before then here is the information in its most original condition albeit updated for this book. Vince M Lewis. September 2nd 2015.
