Proceedings of the fourth Asia-Pacific Research in Social Sciences and Humanities, Arts and Humanities Stream (AHS-APRISH 2019) Shuri Mariasih Gietty Tambunan, 2023-05-27 This is an open access book. According to Castells, power now rests in networks: "the logic of the network is more powerful than the powers of the network" (quoted in Weber, 2002, p. 104) – it is whether nation states or local communities are deeply affected, especially by inclusion in and exclusion from the global networks that structure various sectors in society at any level. Thus it is also crucial to look closely at exclusion from and inclusion in different kinds of social structures where connectivity and access to networks are essential, being aware that people at the bottom are those who, with nothing to offer the network, are excluded. Castells' arguments show us how the new forms of network society offer challenges in a way that despite the disappearance of conventional ties, exploitation, marginalization, exclusion and differentiation remain. In what follows, scholars are invited to build an academic discussion on characterizing the structure and dynamics of societies in the world of the twenty-first century. Thus, scholars may come to look at the meaning of being in a network society by examining the role of network society within the complexity of socio-cultural, political and economic circumstances in strengthening the role of science in overcoming local, national, regional and global problems. But scientific research is also required to identify a wide variety of solutions to societal problems enhanced by the network society, which no longer relate solely to a particular discipline, but are multi- and trans-disciplinary. In addition, recent research has changed the traditional role of academia, demanding more collaboration in the production of science, not only among universities, but also among researchers, social practitioners and policymakers. Considering these issues, the fourth Asia-Pacific Research in Social Sciences and Humanities (APRiSH) will be hosted by the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Indonesia (FISIP UI) in 2019 under the theme The Network Society: Continuity and Change. Scientific inputs from all parts of the world are welcome, academically and practically. Various perspectives, based on mono-disciplinary, multi-disciplinary or trans-disciplinary research are expected to examine the problems and contribute to solutions.

The Female King of Colonial Nigeria Nwando Achebe, 2011-02-21 While providing critical perspectives on women, gender, sex and sexuality, and the colonial encounter, she considers how it was possible for this woman to take on the office and responsibilities of a traditionally male role.

Proceedings of the International Conference on Learning and Advanced Education (ICOLAE 2022) Mauliy Halwat Hikmat, Yasir Sidiq, Naufal Ishartono, Yunus Sulistyono, Patmisari, Susiati, 2023-08-29 This is an open access book. The COVID-19 pandemic in the last two years has influenced how educational system works. Online learning became the primal policy taken by all institutions in the world to lower the risk of the virus spread. Despite the drawbacks of the online learning, teachers and students were accustomed with the distant learning through web meetings, Learning Management Systems (LMS) and other online learning platforms. In that time, topics under digital learning and education 5.0 were the main stakes in academic disseminations. This year some institutions start to conduct their teaching and learning process classically as before the pandemic, others are still continuing online and not few are in hybrid. This leaves a question: what learning reform should be made in post-pandemic era? This conference invites researchers, experts, teachers and students to discuss the coping solutions of the question. It is important for them to contribute to the understanding of re-imaging online education for better futures, innovative learning design, new skills for living and working in new times, global challenge of education, learning and teaching with blended learning, flipped learning, integrating life skills for students in the curriculum, developing educators for the future distance learning, humanities learning in the digital era, assessment and measurement in education, challenges and transformations in education, technology in teaching and learning, new learning and teaching models. Not limited to these, scholars may add another interesting topic related to learning reform in post-pandemic era to present.

African Anarchism Sam Mbah, Chaz Bufe, 2014-01-01 African Anarchism covers a wide range of topics, including anarchistic elements in traditional African societies, African communalism, Africa's economic and political development, the lingering social, political, and economic effects of colonialism, the development of African socialism, the failure of African socialism, and a possible means of resolving Africa's ongoing crises.

Overcoming Challenges in Retirement Aniekan Mbah, 2015-07-28 The primary focus of this book emphasizes the concept of retirement education, beginning from the point of entering service (be it civil service, military, paramilitary and parastatal) to the point of leaving; and also provide a guide to avoiding unnecessary pitfalls. A well planned retirement is an organizational stability factor. Especially when there exists a deliberate plan, well coordinated both at personal and organizational levels. On the personal level, the worker puts something down for the future irrespective of the size of the pay package and takes what he learns at training programs seriously. On the side of the organization, it makes certain contributions, along with learning programs to the staff. This book covers a wide range of related topics - from pre- retirement challenges and challenges after disengagement; in bid to providing constructive solutions to retirement problems and having extraordinary life in your golden years. It is also noted the great importance of understanding that the environment we create for money is largely what provides us with either wealth or poverty in future - whether as individual, community or country.

Environment and Identity Politics in Colonial Africa Emmanuel

Mbah, 2016-12-08 Economic, political, and ethnic favoritism are common themes in the historiography of colonial Africa. Land ownership and control, and the abilities of the respective landscapes to sustain Africa's growing population amidst the throes of climate change, have created recurrent identity crises throughout Africa. The book's chapters elevate the discussion on recurrent environmental issues, the problems of contested ownership of land, autochthonism as well as the interaction and blending of different cultures in a restricted geographical space. The study highlights a neglected aspect of the history of Fulani migrations in West Africa - the colonial extension of the Fulani into the Southern Cameroons (the Fulani as a group did not exist in the region prior to 1916). Therefore the introduction of the Fulani in the region, at a time when ethnic affinities and control over land had already crystallized, resulted in problems of a wider magnitude that have been carefully and meticulously addressed in this book. Environment and Identity Politics in Colonial Africa makes a major contribution to colonial

African historiography. It will be of interest to students and scholars of Modern Africa, African Environmental History and Colonial History

The Wooden Bicycle and Other Stories Mbah Azonga, 2009-10-15 The Wooden Bicycle and Other Stories is a compilation of eight compelling short stories which immediately engage the reader, regardless of which story is selected for reading. Just like the author's other collection of short stories, Cup Man and Other Stories, the book is a depiction of the joys and pains of everyday life in the typical African country or even in the West Indies. This dimension includes an in-depth look at life within the African community in the West - an experience which is, of course daunting as the immigrant struggles to adjust to the new dispensation. Azonga once again shows outstanding skill in narrative techniques by adopting a style that is at once simple and intricate, entertaining and instructive.

A Textbook on Practice and Procedure in Civil and Commercial Litigation in the High Courts of the North-West and South-West Provinces of Cameroon Joseph Mbah-Ndam, 2003

Living In Dominion Fr Emmanuel Mbah, 2017-10-10 God gave Adam and Eve dominion over the earth and everything in it, not only to command but to nurture as well. Living in Dominion challenges and inspires us to expand on that dominion, turning it inward to nurture our own physical, emotional, social, and spiritual health, as God intended. It is God's design that we live lives that are wholly balanced, with everything in the right perspective and the right proportion, and as such, finding that balance can only bring us joy and peace of mind, and give honour to the Creator. Fr Emmanuel Mbah leads us on this journey, sharing insights and wisdom accumulated over a lifetime spent in the service of God and his fellow man. In a world that is too often driven by highs and lows, priorities and neglects, he shows us the importance of finding some sort of balance—the importance of Living in Dominion.

Emergent Masculinities Ndubueze L. Mbah, 2019-10-29 In Emergent Masculinities, Ndubueze L. Mbah argues that the Bight of Biafra region's Atlanticization—or the interaction between regional processes and Atlantic forces such as the slave trade, colonialism, and Christianization—between 1750 and 1920 transformed gender into the primary mode of social differentiation in the region. He incorporates over 250 oral narratives of men and women across a range of social roles and professions with material culture practices, performance traditions, slave ship data, colonial records, and more to reveal how Africans channeled the socioeconomic forces of the Atlantic world through their local ideologies and practices. The gendered struggles over the means of social reproduction conditioned the Bight of Biafra region's participation in Atlantic systems of production and exchange, and defined the demography of the region's forced diaspora. By looking at male and female constructions of masculinity and sexuality as major indexes of social change, Emergent Masculinities transforms our understanding of the role of gender in precolonial Africa and fills a major gap in our knowledge of a broader set of theoretical and comparative issues linked to the slave trade and the African diaspora.

The Power of Prayer Mirabel Mbah, Catherine Kibirige, 2014-07-07 I believe prayer is a currency used in the Kingdom of God for communication. Prayer should be the lifestyle of a Christian. As Children of God, the only way we can have perfect communication with our father, God, is through prayer. A prayer-less Christian is a powerless Christian who can be blown away by any wind of doctrine. But a powerful Christian derives his or her strength through prayer. The Bible says, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you (Matthew 7:7), This can be done only through prayer. The Bible says that, "we have not, because we ask not" (James 4:2). We can change our circumstances only through prayer. In 2007, my family immigrated to the United States. We were the target of a lot of jealousy from friends and relatives and as a result my sister suffered what seemed like a nervous breakdown. It was so severe that she was hospitalized. Unfortunately, the medical doctors could not find anything specifically wrong with her and could not figure out how to treat her. Eventually she was brought home and we began to pray and trust God for her deliverance as a family. She became so seriously ill that everyone gave up on her. It was very difficult for the family because no treatments seemed to work. We had nothing to do but trust God with the other brethren in Christ who stood with us. I knew from God's word in Matthew 17:21 and Mark 9:29 that

"this kind" requires Prayer and Fasting. I therefore spent most of my days in 2007 fasting and praying for my sister. It got to the point where people didn't refer to me simply by my name anymore. They kept referring to my family situation. It forced me to become more consistent and courageous in prayer. After about six months of concerted prayer, my sister was totally delivered. During that time, the devil attacked me severely. Demons appeared in my room many times but I knew that he that was in me was stronger (1 John 4:4). My sister is now a nurse, is married and has a happy family. Tackling life's problems brings out our hidden potential. This is how I became a prayer warrior through Christ who strengthened me. It is my desire and prayer that this book will bring out the hidden power potential in your life as you read it. The Bible says that God is a God of time and season. When the right time and season of God comes into our lives, he makes all things beautiful. God loves us so much and he says in his word that He knows the plans He has in store for us. Plans of good and not of evil. (Jeremiah 29:11) Crying and complaining cannot change the timing of God in our lives. God is so faithful that he honors his word above all his names (Psalms 138:2) and He is God and does not lie nor does He change (Malachi 3:6). Before God brings us to the place of our rest and fulfillment, he must first test us as he did when he asked Abraham to sacrifice his only son Isaac in Genesis 22:2-16. God must develop character in us and prepare us to manage our future blessings. - Special FUNDRAISING Edition - By Purchasing this Edition, you are helping us

Unika Dalam Wacana Publik: Gegara Pan(dem)ik: Terhimpit Untuk Melejit Benny D Setianto, Buku yang sedang anda baca ini juga merupakan bukti lain betapa civitas akademika Unika SOEGIJAPRANATA tidak pernah diam dalam keterbatasan yang ada melainkan justru kepanikan akan pandemik ini telah memunculkan semangat untuk semakin peduli dan terlibat dalam wacana publik. Dalam masa kurang dari 3,5 bulan atau sekitar 110 hari, tercatat lebih dari 50 artikel telah dibuat dan dimuat dalam berbagai media massa. Artinya hampir 2-3 hari sekali selalu muncul gagasan, pendapat dan ungkapan pemikiran yang dimuat dan bisa dibaca oleh publik. Tentu saja, bukan berarti Unika SOEGIJAPRANATA mengharapkan agar pandemic tidak berlalu sehingga bisa memaksa civitas akademika untuk tetap produktif menghasilkan karya, tetapi justru ini untuk menunjukkan semangat yang diwarisi dari nama yang digunakan oleh Lembaga ini. Civitas Akademika tidak boleh amem mlempe, tetapi justru harus bergerak aktif dan produktif pada saat yang lain sedang termangu-mangu oleh perubahan-perubahan dan keterpaksaan-keterpaksaan baru. Dalam himpitan pandemik Unika SOEGIJAPRANATA tetap harus melejit, bukan untuk meraih kejumawaan, tetapi justru karena panggilan untuk berbuat lebih. Ungkapan saudara kita Muslim, Fastabiqul Khairot, berlomba-lomba dalam kebaikan, sesuai dengan semangat penebusan Yesus, karena kita sudah merasakan Kasih Yesus yang begitu besar dalam hidup ini, maka saatnya membagikan kasih kepada sesama dengan ilmu pengetahuan yang juga sudah dikaruniakan kepada kita.

Breaking Away from Foundational Limitations Basile Mbah, 2017-05-30

Everything in this life has got a beginning which I term its FOUNDATION. Be it relationship matters, Christianity, Career, etc. it has a foundation that upholds it and its efficacy or durability relies on the authenticity or strength of its foundation. This book, Breaking Away From Foundational Limitations was inspired of God to help people see the importance of foundations and maximize its potency in every area of life. The readers of this book will want to read it over and over. God bless you all as you read and allow God to impart your life.

False Paradise Mbah Ferdinand Munya, 2010-02 False Paradise is the true life story of a young Cameroonian faced with the prospects of frustration in fulfilling his dream of becoming a football star, taking care of his family, and marrying the girl of his dreams, Evelyn. Because of the devastating economic situation, it has caused many youths like him to flee the country. Inspired by the popular propaganda of an European paradise on Earth, he sees the fulfillment of his dreams in Europe. He embarks on the popular route to Europe through the vast expanse of the Sahara desert, the Mediterranean sea and the Atlantic Ocean, exposing him to all sorts of unprecedented human and natural dangers, and even the risk of losing his life. However, when his strong volition and steadfastness finally take him to Europe, he surprisingly discovers that the popular propaganda of an European paradise on Earth is false--especially for a black man, and that he has actually left the true paradise on Earth back at home in Cameroon.

Feathers in Reverse Mbah Azonga, 2014-04-02 Feathers in Reverse is the ideal gift for a loved one who is scared of poetry. It engages and immerses readers with the luring subtlety of a serpent. Themes treated include good and evil, heaven and earth, man and woman, birth and death, urbanism and rural life, wealth and poverty. As much as the poet highlights salient issues and conflicts in everyday life, he suggests answers to burning problems as well. A common thread runs through the over 300 poems feathered and featured in this collection. The notion of the feather is cross-cultural. It reminds us of the feather used as a pen in ancient Europe and the red feather that is stuck on the caps of African notables as a mark of distinction. Feathers in Reverse is a magic pudding to be sampled, shared and indulged.

Music and Political Youth Organizations in Russia Chiara

Pierobon, 2013-11-12 Chiara Pierobon analyzes the relationship existing between political youth organizations, music and national identity in contemporary Russia. In particular she focuses the most important political youth organizations present in the city of St. Petersburg and describes their contribution to the conceptualization of post-Soviet national identity(ies), as captured through an analysis of their music. The book distinguishes itself for its conceptualization of music and provides new empirical insights into the use of this medium as a research tool and as an analytic device for the study and comparison of political youth organizations. It also suggests the adoption of a new approach looking at the national identity issue as an “operational category offering a [new] relevant framework for the study of contemporary Russia” (Laruelle 2010).

The Cowrie Necklace Mbah Azonga, 2013-01-16 The Cowrie Necklace is a graphic account of the struggle for meaning in life. The poems are a carefully woven sizzling and cracking attempt to mirror society. The poet runs a long and wide gamut of poetic themes which include the intricacies of joy and sadness, God and the devil, nature and nurture, good and evil, love, deceit and treachery. The narrative style is reminiscent of Wole Soyinka, Francesco Nditsona and D.H. Lawrence. The Cowrie Necklace is a must read.

Identity and Belonging Kate Huppatz, Amie Matthews, Mary Hawkins, 2019-02-05

Identity and Belonging examines the interplay between self and society and in doing so explores the complex nature of 'who we are' and 'how we come to be' as individuals and as members of various social groups. Investigating issues of identity and belonging as they emerge in contemporary social life and under conditions of globalisation, the book focuses on continuity and change in the formation of identities and communities. Through a variety of examples and case studies, the chapters discuss how elements such as ethnicity, class, gender and sexuality intersect and are experienced both locally and transnationally. As a modern guide to some classic themes and key thinkers in the discipline of sociology, this accessible text can be used to introduce core topics of identity, social divisions and globalisation, as well as to investigate in detail more specific themes and issues such as migration, consumption and digital media. It is a useful and comprehensive resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of sociology and related disciplines.
