DevOps for the Modern Enterprise Mirco Hering,2018-04-03 Many organizations are facing the uphill battle of modernizing their legacy IT infrastructure. Most have evolved over the years by taking lessons from traditional or legacy manufacturing: creating a production process that puts the emphasis on the process instead of the people performing the tasks, allowing the organization to treat people like resources to try to achieve high-quality outcomes. But those practices and ideas are failing modern IT, where collaboration and creativeness are required to achieve high-performing, high-quality success. Mirco Hering, a thought leader in managing IT within legacy organizations, lays out a roadmap to success for IT managers, showing them how to create the right ecosystem, how to empower people to bring their best to work every day, and how to put the right technology in the driver's seat to propel their organization to success. But just having the right methods and tools will not magically transform an organization; the cultural change that is the hardest is also the most impactful. Using principles from Agile, Lean, and DevOps as well as first-hand examples from the enterprise world, Hering addresses the different challenges that legacy organizations face as they transform into modern IT departments.

The Complete Encyclopedia of Classic Motorcycles Micro De Cet,2009-07-10 This book contains the histories of 100 notable motorcycle manufacturers, recounting in colorful detail their dramatic ascents and declines or, in the luckiest cases, their continued and dazzling successes. Author Mirco De Cet notes the most famous designers, machines, racers and companies. The book includes 750 color photographs, many of which have never been seen before since many of the machines featured have been discontinued and now exist solely in private collections or museums around the world. With the aid of the companies and private individuals, Mirco De Cet has unearthed as many classic machines as he could and brushed off the dust to reveal them to you in their full glory.

SAC Journal 2 Sanford Kwinter,Daniel Birnbaum,Maraike Bückling,Sebastian Oschatz,Mathias Wollin,Peter Trummer,Mirco Becker,Johan Bettum,2015-07-21 MEDIATED ARCHITECTURE: Vivid, Effervescent and Nervous, the second issue of the SAC JOURNAL, presents three projects de- signed at SAC during the last eight years. The three projects are: The Theatre of Immanence (2007), an installation and exhibition project in Städtelschule's Portikus gallery; Digital Bodies (2013-14), an experimental research project; and Orkhēstra (2014), which was an installation on a large, public square in Frankfurt and part of Luminale, 'Biennale of Lighting Culture'. The projects vary in scale and nature from gallery installation via laboratory-style modelling experiment to an urban intervention. They span a period in which architecture's contribution to the production of space has become increasingly mediated by technology. Each in their own way, the three projects probe this condition and explore new design opportunities given to architecture. The results are vivid, effervescent and nervous – and always a mediated architecture. Accompanying extensive portfolios of drawings and pictures that document the respective design processes and their results, are texts that expound on the theoretical and practical implications of each project

Racism and bigotry in Dave Chappelle's comedy. Laughing at inequity Mirco Steder, 2022-07-14 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Culture and Applied Geography, grade: 1,0, Christian-Albrechts-University of Kiel, language: English, abstract: I will try to shine a light of the role of humor in African American culture in this paper. Regarding the everyday racism that minorities in general and African Americans in particular face in the United States to this day, it is no surprise to find African American comedians employ many tactics to either highlight, demask, ridicule, or turn the concept of racism upside down in their stand-up routines, TV shows, or movies. The examination focuses on how Dave Chappelle managed to create joy and laughter from ridiculing racism and bigotry in his TV show Chappelle's Show during its three-season run from 2003 through 2006. The focus of my interest lies in how Chappelle and his co-writer Neal Brennan tackle racism in their TV show. I will examine two sketches from Chappelle's Show, namely, Frontline – Clayton Bigsby, and Jury Duty to answer the question whether Chappelle and Brennan do live up to Pérez', Thomas', and Mintz' assessment of a comedian's role in the American society.

Asymmetries in the Phonology of Miogliola Mirco Ghini, 2011-07-11 Drawing on a dual expertise of rare intensity, Mirco Ghini's book is a major contribution to both Romance dialectology and phonological theory. It gives a comprehensive account of the segmental and metrical phonology of the Ligurian dialect of the village of Miogliola, North-west Italy. Based on the author's own fieldwork, it is the first in-depth study of this area, also tracing its development from Latin. Feature assignment, underspecification, and quantity alternations are most prominent among the general theoretical issues on which the particulars of Miogliola phonology, meticulously analysed, are brought to bear with elegance and force.

Penelope Gohar Markosyan-Käsper, 2022-03-03 Contraltare ironico a Ulisse di Joyce, Penelope racconta in maniera tragicomica un'intera giornata di una ragazza armena, poco dopo il crollo dell'Unione Sovietica, in un paese alle prese con drammatici problemi energetici ed economici e in guerra con l'Azerbaigian. La narrazione si svolge in un quasi ininterrotto flusso di coscienza, in cui si intrecciano ricordi, giochi di parole, riflessioni e citazioni letterarie. Un unicum ribollente di pensieri da dove a tratti riemergono dialoghi e situazioni di vita quotidiana. Questo stile, virtuosistico e, insieme, autoironico, dà forma a un originalissimo "romanzo da camera", capace di attirare saldamente l'attenzione del lettore e di coinvolgerlo in un divertente e mai scontato gioco di riferimenti letterari e associazioni. Tradotto anche in armeno, francese, olandese, spagnolo e tedesco, Penelope è considerato il capolavoro di Gohar Markosyan-Käsper.

Agencies & Brands in the Experience Economy: Management Organization Mirco Pasqualini, 2019-01-30 Everyone working in the space of brands, marketing and communications has seen their job change rapidly in recent years. In particular, the agency business has been forced to rethink and redefine its role. As well, the impact of the new economy and the establishment of the experience economy model has changed everything we have known about marketing, brands, customer perspectives and the rules & dynamics defining the relationship between these elements. Multidisciplinary & inclusion have become mandatory requirements for everyone, dethroning traditional "Creatives" from the leadership to a more equal level with other disciplines & practices. Data & Technology have become the new language; Design & Experience are the new religions; a new generation of leadership is rising with a system consciousness as an effect of the digital age. I truly believe in the power of sharing to make changes, and this is the reason why I am sharing this work. After spending the last 20 years in different business contexts as a consultant for private companies and startups; as a chief design officer for a venture incubator and an executive for agencies, I decided to summarize everything I have observed and discovered about the relationships between companies, teams, operational models, business results, innovation and growth in this blueprint. I do not expect everyone to agree with my work and my vision won't be a fit for all, but I am sure that everyone will find something in these pages useful and different from their perspective capable of stimulating questions or reflections. How can company management organization be more holistic, multidisciplinary, integrated, human-centered, systematic, inclusive and create the conditions to trigger innovation?

The Three Sisters Mirco Maggi, 2021-06-22 A good bicycle and less than a couple of hours of pedaling would be enough to get me by. But I can't leave like this, and then you'll understand why. I'm the only one left to Souty besides the three sisters. It's an incredible story, and if I hadn't lived it firsthand, I would say it's an impossible story. But unfortunately, it's all true. And sadly, they are all dead. (Basterebbe una buona bicicletta e meno di una paio d'ore di pedalate, per cavarmela. Ma non posso andarmene così, e poi capirete il perché. Io sono l'unico rimasto a Souty, oltre alle tre sorelle. E' una storia incredibile, e se non l'avessi vissuta in prima persona direi che è una storia impossibile. Ma purtroppo è tutto vero. Purtroppo sono tutti morti.)

MR Angiography of the Body Emanuele Neri, Mirco Cosottini, Davide Caramella, 2009-12-11 Magnetic resonance angiography (MRA) continues to undergo exciting technological advances that are rapidly being translated into clinical practice. It also has evident advantages over other imaging modalities, including CT angiography and ultrasonography. With the aid of numerous high-quality illustrations, this book reviews the current role of MRA of the body. It is divided into three sections. The first section is devoted to issues relating to image acquisition technique and sequences, which are explored in depth. The second and principal section addresses the clinical applications of MRA in various parts of the body, including the neck vessels, the spine, the thoracic aorta and pulmonary vessels, the heart and coronary arteries, the abdominal aorta and renal arteries, and peripheral vessels. The final section considers the role of MRA in patients undergoing liver or pancreas and kidney transplantation. This book will be an invaluable aid to all radiologists who work with MRA.

Soil Carbon in Sensitive European Ecosystems Robert Jandl, Mirco Rodeghiero, Mats Olsson, 2011-10-20 Soil Carbon in Sensitive European Ecosystems - From Science to Land Management is a comprehensive overview of the latest research in this field drawn together by a network of scientists from across Europe. Soil carbon assessments are crucial at present to our understanding of the dynamics of terrestrial ecosystems and our ability to assess implications for the global carbon exchange and its consequences on the future climate. This book focuses primarily on ecosystems and their soil carbon stocks. The book identifies three key sensitive ecosystems within Europe: Mediterranean Forest and Agricultural Systems; Mountains; and Peatland. Contributors include those currently working for the European research programme, COST Action 639 BurnOut (www.cost639.net; 2006-2010). COST Action 639 emerged from a demand from policy makers in Europe for more detailed information on soil carbon dynamics. The cooperation between experts for reporting and experts for soil dynamics is the focus of the book. This book seeks to provide an up-to-date account on the state-of-the-art research within this topical field.
