Monkey Business: The Garnet Talisman #2 Virginia A. Trahan, 2021-11 While walking home from her first day at school after her summer vacation, a teenage girl, Anna Grant, finds a beautiful gold and garnet necklace tucked in a box. It appears to have come from the other side of the world. She believes this discovery will be her lucky talisman, but soon discovers it is much more than that; it has the magical ability to grant her every wish! Gary Kline, a cute boy in her homeroom, had insulted and humiliated her when she had accidentally bumped into him. When she arrives home from school she finds a way to get revenge with the help of the talisman. Anna makes a wish to get retribution that eventually links her to the nasty boy. Being a talented artist who hopes to become a professional cartoonist, she uses her sketch pad and the talisman to get revenge. However, it backfires and pulls her in to join Gary in an adventure that will change both of their lives forever. Anna's skill enables her to create mysterious avatars of her and Gary; gorillas that she sketches. They work as a crime-fighting team to make a difference in the lives of people in their community. Their alliance is, for the most part, kept secret, but a few snags and complications cause some folks to guess what is behind the mysterious goings on in their town. They call themselves 'Monkey Business' and become a force to be reckoned with.

Lion of Siddhas ,2008-06-02 Best known as Machig Labdron's teacher, the Indian mahasiddha Padampa Sangye is counted as a lineage guru by all schools of Tibetan Buddhism. He brought the lineage of Chöd to Tibet, carried the Buddha's teachings to China, and is even asserted in the Tibetan tradition to have been the legendary Bodhidharma. Padampa Sangye's teaching methods were unorthodox and sometimes extreme. This transcendent and irascible teacher encouraged his disciples to disregard social conventions, disdain social contacts, and go beyond their cultural conditioning. He inspired innumerable highly realized disciples, many of whom were women. Lion of Siddhas presents two extraordinary texts: a biography of Padampa Sangye, and a rare collection of his verbal and nonverbal teachings called Mahamudra in Symbols, recorded by his chief Tibetan disciple almost a thousand years ago. Both are previously untranslated.

The Lost Flamingoes of Bombay Siddharth Dhanvant Shanghvi, 2010-10-12 When photographer Karan Seth comes to Bombay intent on immortalizing a city charged by celebrity and sensation, he is instantly drawn in by its allure and cruelty. Along the way, he discovers unlikely allies: Samar, an eccentric pianist; Zaira, the reclusive queen of Bollywood; and Rhea, a married woman who seduces Karan into a tender but twisted affair. But when an unexpected tragedy strikes, the four lives are irreparably torn apart. Flung into a Fitzgeraldian world of sex, crime and collusion, Karan learns that what the heart sees the mind's eye may never behold. Siddharth Dhanvant Shanghvi's The Lost Flamingoes of Bombay is a razor sharp chronicle of four friends caught in modern India's tidal wave of uneven prosperity and political failure. It's also a profoundly moving meditation on love's betrayal and the redemptive powers of friendship.

The Monkey's Paw (Annotated) William Wymark

Jacobs, 2020-01-28 Differentiated book- It has a historical context with research of the time-The story begins by telling a scene in which father and son (Mr. White and Herbert) are playing chess in their living room, and are in the company of the mother. It is a cold and wet night, which helps to insert and increase the suspense. A new character arrives on stage, whom they were waiting for and is very dear to the family, and tells them of the places he has been while serving as a sergeant in India. It is here that he tells the story of the monkey leg. The monkey leg is a talisman that can be asked for three wishes but, each of these wishes are fulfilled in unexpected conditions and you have to learn to endure and live with its consequences. This new character is Sergeant Morris who, as already said, comes from India and tells them that an old fakir haunted this monkey leg so that three men would ask for three wishes; Apparently this monkey leg had already fulfilled the sergeant's wishes, the former owner of the talisman had also fulfilled his wishes being the last, death. He also explained how the talisman was used and talked about its effectiveness. Apparently, Morris had been so terrified by this talisman that he decided to throw it into the fire, but Mr. White decided to take it and keep it; He decides to make his first wish without paying attention to the warnings Morris had given him. The first desire is money that they need to finish paying the house mortgage. The money comes the next day with a terrible consequence, the death of Herbert. The other two wishes ask them to remedy the fatal consequence of the first, but after the last wish it is as if it annulled everything, as if nothing had happened beyond the first desire.

Rafael, James D. Anderson, 2007 Rafael Català and James Anderson have prepared this concise reference that provides access to poems from a broad cross section of poetry, literary, scholarly, popular, and general magazines, journals, and reviews published in the United States, Canada, and the Caribbean. These periodicals are listed in the Periodicals Indexed section, together with names of editors, addresses, issues indexed in this volume, and subscription information. Selection of periodicals is the responsibility of the editors, based on recommendations of poets, librarians, literary scholars, and publishers. Publishers participate by supplying copies of all issues to the editors. Criteria for inclusion include the quality of poems, their presentation, and the status or reputation of poets. Within these very broad and subjective guidelines, the editors attempt to include a cross section of periodicals by type of publisher and publication, place of publication, language, and type of poetry. Periodicals published outside of North America are included only if they have North American editors. This thirty-fourth annual volume was produced with the cooperation of participating periodicals from Canada, the United States, and the Caribbean. A separate index provides access by title or first line. This volume includes poems published in 2005, plus earlier years when periodical issues were delayed in publication or were received late.

Jacobs, 2015-05-06 This early work by William Wymark Jacobs was originally published in 1902 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography. Jacobs worked as a clerk in the civil service before turning to writing in his late twenties, publishing his first short story in 1895. Most of Jacobs' work appeared before the onset of World War I, and although the majority of his output was humorous in tone, he is best-remembered now for his macabre tales, particularly those contained in his 1902 collection The Lady of the Barge, such as 'The Monkey's Paw' and 'The Toll House'.
