Luc Tuymans. Glasses ,2016 In Glasses, Luc Tuymans and the MAS bring together an exquisite selection of more than twenty works. They include portraits, both of ?nameless people? and of historical figures, and other works, and they have never been seen together before.⁰⁰The selection includes iconic works from Tuymans? oeuvre, whose major themes include Nazism, colonialism and nationalism. In the series Die Zeit, the SS man Heydrich hides his face behind dark glasses, the young Baudouin steps off a plane in Léopoldville concealed by his sunglasses, the laughing American family man Milteer, with eyes wide open behind his glasses, is an extremist and racist, and the face of Flemish author Ernest Claes becomes a kind of blank mask with glasses.⁰⁰Exhibition: MAS, Antwerp, Belgium (13.05-18.09.2016).

Mas Revealed Museum aan de Stroom (Antwerp, Belgium),2012-08-01 The story of the MAS is one long in the telling. It is a story of the city, its river and its connections with the world told through the medium of its various collections. However, it is also the story of creating a museum for the city and how that museum came into being. These books give a comprehensive explanation of its genesis, one that was not at all without obstacles set in its path. Just as in the history of the city of Antwerp itself, the unfolding story of the MAS involved many chapters and a variety of protagonists. These people allow the story to be understood not only from a literary and artistic perspective but also from the standpoints of urban development, architecture, economics, politics and construction. All of these protagonists contributed superior knowledge and expertise from their own fields.

World Port Els de Palmenaer,2012-08-01 Antwerp owes much to the River Scheldt and the port. For centuries the world has been sailing into Antwerp and Antwerp has been sailing out into the world. Its story has been one of growth and expansion, right through from the Middle Ages to the present day.

Anne-Mie Van Kerckhoven Marc Holthof,Museum aan de Stroom (Antwerpen),2011 Anne-Mie Van Kerckhoven made creations for the light walls of the MAS. The museum's design and the book. For the creations of the MAS (Museum on the River), she was inspired by the book of John Hieroglyphica Pierius Valerian from the museum.

The User Perspective on Twenty-First-Century Art Museums Georgia Lindsay,2016-04-14 The User Perspective on Twenty-First Century Art Museums explains contemporary museums from the whole gamut of user experiences, whether users are preserving art, creating an exhibit, visiting, or part of institutions that use the architecture for branding. Fourteen museums from the United States, Europe, China, and Australia represent new construction, repurposed buildings, and additions, offering examples for most museum design situations. Each is examined using interviews with key stakeholders, photographs, and analyses of press coverage to identify lessons from the main user groups. User groups vary from project to project depending on conditions and context, so each of the four parts of the book features a summary of the users and issues in that section for quick reference. The book concludes with a practical, straightforward lessons-learned summary and a critical assessment of twenty-first-century museum architecture, programming, and expectations to help you embark on a new building design. Architects, architecture students, museum professionals, and aficionados of museum design will all find helpful insights in these lessons and critiques.

Rare and Indispensable, 2023 Magritte, Bacon, Ensor, Moore, Jordaens, Rubens . These are just some of the world-famous names on display at the MAS in autumn 2023. The not-to-be-missed exhibition 'Rare and Indispensable' brings a unique selection of masterpieces from the Flemish masterpiece list. Works of art you would otherwise have to travel all over Flanders to see, or which were never even publicly accessible, can now be temporarily admired in one museum hall. All in honour of the 20th anniversary of the 'Flemish Masterpiece Decree'.⁰⁰Over twenty museums, large and small, as well as churches, libraries and private collectors, temporarily lend masterpieces from their collections to the MAS. All works are part of the Flemish Masterpiece List or have been acquired by the government since 2003.⁰⁰Famous paintings by Hugo van der Goes, Rubens, Jordaens, Ensor, Magritte and Bacon, sculptures by Lucas Faydherbe and Henry Moore, as well as precious silver, medieval manuscripts and a rare piece of furniture by Pierre Gole, ébeniste du roi of the French king Louis XIV, can exceptionally be admired in one place at the same time.⁰⁰Exhibition: MAS, Antwerp, Belgium (31.10.2023 - 25.02.2024).

Image-thinking Koninklijk Museum voor Schone Kunsten (Belgium), 2011 A prestigious exhibition. Masterworks of the MAS. 5 Centuries of Images takes a closer look on the evolution of image culture from the Middle Ages until now, using masterpieces from the Antwerp collections. The economical success from the Antwerp harbour generates an important turning point in 16th and 17th century art. Not only the rich and clerical order works of art, also the bourgeois class get interested in buying art. A creative boost is the logic consequence. In the exhibition and catalogue the old masters such as Jan van Eyck, Peter Paul Rubens and Jacob Jordaens are confronted with contemporary artists such as Luc Tuymans, Jan Fabre and Koen van den Broek.
