PAW PALS Marilyn Pavlovsky,2013-01-09 The Trudy Books are living accounts of daily life on an actual farm. On this farm some animals have been rescued. Many have been donated to great organizations. There are horses, some goats, dogs and other kinds of animals. Family children barrel race and do shows. The ranch is always full of much bustle and fun. These stories are told as if the authors oldest Jack Rat is telling the story. Her name is Trudy. She lives with her brother Wyatt, her sisters Lucy and Betsy. She also has a son named Wil who lives with her. In the yard there is a big white German shepherd named Vanna. Trudy deals with over fifty horses everyday. Funny as it may seem, this dog has her own pony named Snowball and she rides him at home or in a show. Between the funny things these beautiful dogs do and the author's sense of humor, you will find Paw Pals a most enjoyable read for both you and your children.

Turning the Wheel Kevan Manwaring,2011-11-25 'The frisky Oss appeared – the dancers and drummers in a kind of shamanic trance (induced by a day of drumming, dancing and beer). They were wilder than ever; the atmosphere was positively Bacchanalian and I felt we had all become lost in a kind of collective folk consciousness.' On two wheels across Britain 'Bard on a Bike' Kevan Manwaring searches out the places and people who mark the seasons and cycles in their own special way - in ceremonies and festivals both private and public, large and intimate, ancient and modern. Along the way, he experiences and relates moments of sacred time found in the unlikeliest of places and circumstances, showing how it is a state of mind that can be experienced not only at sacred sites, but in the everyday. A collection of reflections about being fully alive in the Twenty First century, as much a useful guide for the curious, Turning the Wheel is a wise and witty account of a leather-clad time-traveller.

Tyler tries to help her find a puppy at a local shelter, but there seems to be a few complications. Chloe and her friends think of a plan to come to the shelters' rescue. Joy Unleashed Jean Baur, 2016-08-16 In 2007, Mary Eldergill, a volunteer member of Amigos de Los Animales (Friends of the Animals), discovered a group of newborn puppies on Dead Dog Beach in Puerto Rico. Mary rescued and rehabilitated them and, three months later, they flew to Newark, New Jersey, to be placed in their forever homes. Jean Baur and her husband adopted one of Mary's rescues—a dog named Bella—and opened her Pennsylvania home to her new best friend. Just as Jean enrolled Bella in certified therapy-dog classes, she lost her job at the age of sixty-five. This new work, visiting hospital patients with her therapy job, gave Jean hope and a new purpose in life. After moving to Connecticut, Bella's work expanded to nursing homes and elementary schools, as well as local hospitals and cancer centers. She met an Alzheimer's patient who learned to smile again after Bella took a treat from her hand. She also befriended a six-year-old boy with autism (who previously held a deep fear of dogs) along with a disabled hospital patient who was withdrawn and uncommunicative until Bella jumped into the bed with him and coaxed him to open up again. Jean and Bella's journey into the world of therapy-dog work gave them a bright, new outlook—and has helped countless others overcome their own struggles—while proving to all that broken souls can, indeed, be healed. Joy Unleashed is a must-read for anyone who appreciates the true power of the human-canine bond.
