Manga and Anime Go to Hollywood Northrop Davis,2015-12-17 The media industries in the United States and Japan are similar in much the same way different animal species are: while a horse and a kangaroo share maybe 95% of their DNA, they're nonetheless very different animals-and so it is with manga and anime in Japanese and Hollywood animation, movies, and television. Though they share some key common elements, they developed mostly separately while still influencing each other significantly along the way. That confluence is now accelerating into new forms of hybridization that will drive much of future storytelling entertainment. Packed with original interviews with top creators in these fields and illuminating case studies, Manga and Anime Go to Hollywood helps to parse out these these shared and diverging genetic codes, revealing the cross-influences and independent traits of Japanese and American animation. In addition, Manga and Anime Go to Hollywood shows how to use this knowledge creatively to shape the future of global narrative storytelling, including through the educational system. Northrop Davis paints a fascinating picture of the interrelated history of Japanese manga/anime and Hollywood since the Meiji period through to World War II and up to the present day - and even to into the future.

Bloodlust: The First Powerpuff Girl Elvis Del Valle,2023-06-11 Before Blossom, Bubbles and Buttercup, there was a little girl named Bloodlust. She was the very first Powerpuff Girl created by Professor Utonium when he was a family guy with a wife and a son. Bloodlust was created for something great, but she turned out to be something dangerous. This is the lost fan-fic or creppypasta Elvis Del Valle wrote in 2016 after the sucess of his short films Bubbles Deaht and Profondo Blossom. It was made to introduce a new character for The Powerpuff Girls Movie 2, but the project was cancelled twice. The main reason was for the Power Of Four episode from the reboot series since Bliss had an origin story alike Bloodlust. This story was used for the Radio Stories pilot episode. This story was made as a prequel to The Powerpuff Girls original series and Powerpuff Girls Z as well, mixing both shows in the same story. Now years later, the original text is here for very first time to find its place in the world of fan fictions after being out of sight for so long and after Elvis promised he would never write another fan fiction again just to focus in his own original stuff.
