Unwrapping Your Passion Karen Putz,2017-06-09 The motivational speaker and barefoot water skier shares stories of people—including herself—who found the courage to follow their passions. For years Karen Putz worked a sales job she neither loved nor hated. She liked the company and her boss, yet something essential was missing: passion. So she set out to learn from people who were madly in love with their work and their lives. Here, Karen tells the inspiring stories of individuals who discovered their true passion, purpose, and desire. And she begins with her own story of going deaf from a barefoot water-skiing accident only to rediscover her passion for the sport at age forty-four. Everyone is given a unique gift in life—but too many of us never unwrap the package. Unwrapping Your Passion is your guide to shaking up the status quo and getting down to the essence of who you are, what you love, and the passion that will drive your life forward.

Short Tales by the Putz Putz Ballard,2010-02-18 Stories and tales are a part of my heritage and I have always enjoyed sitting around spinning yarns and listening to what others have to tell. I have undertaken to write some of my favorites which originally were written as articles on a blog site. It is with a great deal of pride I now share these in this book.

Putz Michael B. Druxman,2012-07-01 PUTZ, Michael B. Druxman's two-character comedy, explores the vicissitudes of the father & son relationship. Alan Nathan is a twice-divorced Jewish screenwriter who can't understand why his beloved son, Marty, is suddenly causing him problems. Not only has the high school senior begun criticizing Alan's self-indulgent lifestyle, but he's now decided to quit school and go on the road as a rock musician. If only he had lived with me all these years, Alan bemoans, instead of his mother, my son's head wouldn't be so screwed up. Tragedy strikes. Alan gets his wish. The boy moves in, and it's a disaster. He now has to deal with his son on a day-to-day basis...and Alan's psyche is not equipped for that... especially after Marty suddenly announces that he's become a Jew for Jesus. 2 men; 1 set

Putz and Putz, or The lives of two bears, from the Germ. [of F.W.C. Gerstaecker]. Friedrich Wilhelm C. Gerstaecker,1869

The Putz and the Paupers Tyler Tyler,2014-10-18 The Putz and the Paupers is an introspective tale set in the fictitious city of Anthem, Washington, during a particularly turbulent period for four twentysomethings and their close-knit social circle. Andrew Fitzkirk, the putz, is an overweight, overamped schizophrenic with a multitude of problems and personalities. If it isn't his disappearing-reappearing butler, it's this diner, or the diner's manager, or his stuffed penguin, or all the furniture that talks to him. He doesn't sleep well, he doesn't eat right, and he makes no distinction between what is real and what is not. He sits on a pile of riches, but he'd be just as happy sitting on a pile of waste. Kevin Neirs, Jr., a pauper, is a well-meaning young man who earns his living on his back. He was abandoned as a teen, and he's been alone since. It wasn't an easy adjustment, but he's gotten used to it. Then his roommate's friends show him some kindness, and that kindness sparks an attachment to other people-an attachment he hasn't let himself feel in six long years. Overwhelmed by a surge of emotion, Kevin follows his heart, blindly, into a future that is uncertain. Rachel Lynn Brierhol, a pauper, was raised an outcast, and it's made her somewhat self-conscious. She reconciles that by exiling herself from her family, burying herself in her minimum wage job-where her boss regularly hits on her-and her friendships with her high school buddies. She never really planned for a tomorrow, but when it crept up on her without warning, Rachel finds herself struggling to find her peace with it. Scott Johanssen, a pauper, is angry, he is resentful, and there is no end of irritants in his life. His best friend is a constant strain on his dwindling patience, he regularly taxis his reclusive sister to the doctor's, he works at a pretentious grocery store, and his mother sold him up the river to his egomaniacal father. And his blood pressure pills do little to alleviate the tension. In spite of this, he has some control, but when the girl of his dreams is swept off her feet by another guy, he finds his control slipping, and in more ways than one. Featuring a retro soundtrack and a phenomenal acting cast, you'd have to be a putz to miss out on this set, which contains all four episodes from the series, as well as a plethora of deleted scenes-it's a righteous endeavor!WARNING! Hanna Putz & Sophie Thun Luca Lo Pinto,2019-02 The photography publication White Flag is the result of a collaboration between the photographers Hanna Putz and Sophie Thun and presents an intensive, alternating photographic dialog between two female friends.00Hanna Putz and Sophie Thun photographed each other over a period of two years and in this book constructs a game of varying roles behind and in front of the camera. Putz and Thun photograph each other in staged and improvised poses; in landscapes, trains, offices and studios. The dual view generates an improvised choreography that can be read like a visual notebook or diary.
