Pyro A. G. M. Campbell,2022-03-01 Senior year is supposed to be special, but for Melissa Curran it starts off with spontaneous combustion and the unexpected friendship of two foreign students, Willow Caldrige and his twin sister Cierra. Melissa stresses about keeping her fiery secret from the newcomers, but then she learns the secret they've been keeping: they're elves from Parcia, a country that doesn't even appear on maps. Melissa knows she will never return to an ordinary life, especially after a traitorous murder in Parcia reveals a bloodthirsty enemy. Between the threat of a killer on the loose, Melissa's growing feelings for Willow, and her new tendency to accidentally set things on fire, senior year is shaping up to be the toughest year yet—understatement! Melissa has to face perilous danger in defense of herself and her new friends.

Pyro Monique Polak,2012 As things heat up in Franklin's life, his desire to do good deeds changes into a dangerous obsession.

Pyro-Vortex Scott Murray,Charity Bishop,2013-01-18 It was a hot-weather whirlwind coursing across the upper plains. But unlike all the others, this one shifted course and veered into the shepherds' camp. The first hut it hit it destroyed, sucking-up the grass thatch roof and the cooking fire. The dried grass and other debris immediately burst into flames. It was an unfathomable occurrence. According to science, the Earth had not seen the likes of it for over 65 million years, not since the extinction of the last intelligent life on the planet. More recently, Satan wasn't able to get man to destroy himself through nuclear proliferation. Fear, Satan's only weapon against man, could have made him "push the button" during the Cold War. But he didn't. So to destroy mankind and interrupt God's plan, Satan made one last-ditch effort before the Rapture. It is fitting that in the American West they call hot-weather whirlwinds "Dust Devils." This is the story of what could happen if a Pyro-Vortex was to occur... Again.

Pyro's Accidental Shooting Toni Griffin,2018-04-18 Winter in Melbourne makes the hunt for supernatural beings gone bad harder than usual during the cold foggy nights. A chill has settled deep in Pyro's bones. One he can't shake loose. More than anything, Pyro wishes for a heart mate of his own to come home to after the long nights of a hunt, one who understands him and his desires, who can hold him together when he needs to let go. Life has always been planned out for Callum. His family of cops expected him to be a cop, so that's what he became. But Callum isn't so sure about being a detective for the Melbourne police. Not many people understand the demands of being a cop, and it's been the downfall of more than one of his relationships. Why should his chance of loving someone get sidelined for a job he isn't even sure he wants? One fateful encounter on a fog-shrouded night changes both their worlds forever. Now Pyro just has to convince his heart mate they belong together while Callum tries to come to terms with a world he never knew existed and does his best to make up for accidentally shooting the unusual and intriguing hellhound.

Watson loves pirates, treasure and all things to do with maps and tales of long ago. When his mother goes away to nurse Nan, Pyro is left stranded in a caravan at the beach with his Aunt Mor. So Pyro calls in his alter ego, Simeon the Pirate Fighter, to pass the long evenings and longer days. Then Pyro meets local boy Min and his four-legged mate, Becks. Life becomes interesting - even downright dangerous - when the town bullies claim the beach as their own. Can Pyro and Min draw on Simeon's daring to defend themselves?
