All the while, he is worried about his newfound love, Kat, as she struggles to come to terms with not only her incredibly deep love and infatuation for Johnny Raven, but also the newfound changes taking place since her transformation began after being bitten by Johnny to save her life. After all, to become a beast is not very easy for a mere human. Raven's Rage is more ferocious and frightening than the first installment; a definite page-turner from the beginning to end with one of the most climactic closing scenes ever read, taking place at the mysterious and eerie Eastern State Penitentiary in Philadelphia. Constant action and battles, tied around a very beastly love affair.
