Leading by Being and Doing Sam Rockwell, 2013-09 Learn how to lead out of who you are, and less out of who others expect you to be. In his inaugural book, Leading by Being and Doing, Dr. Sam Rockwell provides Christian leaders with the necessary spiritual groundwork and practical tools to create an authentic and resilient ministry that will stand the test of time. Integrating being and doing brings life into focus. They must never be separated or inverted. Dr. Rockwell gives us a brilliant guide to help accomplish this delicate balance. -Jerry Cook, author of the national bestseller, Love, Acceptance and Forgiveness In this study of leadership, Sam Rockwell has given us hope for our own narratives and has given us a proven way to catalyze authenticity in others by being real as described in these pages. As an educator and trainer I have finally found a book that speaks to what makes a leader's brokenness redemptive. -Dr. Joseph Umidi, Professor, Regent University, author of Transformational Coaching Leading by Being and Doing covers the high points of spiritual leadership for those who would build movements rather than merely a following. -Ralph Moore, author of How to Multiply Your Church and Making Disciples Rockwell writes, This book is both personal and practical in that it was written mostly as a response to very real dilemmas and questions spiritual leaders grapple with on a daily basis: 'What am I supposed to be accomplishing? How is this measured? What will last over time? How do I start?' Dr. Rockwell balances these practical issues with sage advice: 'It is not our cleverness that makes a lasting impact, but our unadorned self.' Leading by Being and Doing will encourage and empower you to find your true self and identify your own voice. You will discover how to lead out of who you are, and less out of who others expect you to be. _____ Sam Rockwell (PhD) has served as pastor, professor, and professional consultant to both church and business leaders in 30 countries on 6 continents. It depicts the cast of a fictional defunct cult television series, Galaxy Quest, who are visited by actual aliens who think the series is an accurate documentary, and become involved in a very real intergalactic conflict. Confessions of a Dangerous Mind Chuck Barris,2002 Suspense, excess, danger, and exuberant fun come together in Chuck Barris's unlikely autobiography- the tale of a wildly amboyant '70s television producer nationally known as the host of The Gong Show. What most people don't know is that Barris also spent close to two decades as a decorated covert assassin for the CIA, claiming to have killed over thirty people. Honestly. Barris, who achieved tremendous success as the creator of the hit game shows The Dating Game and The Newlywed Game, joined the CIA as an agent in the early 1960s. He infiltrated the Civil Rights movement, met with militant Muslims in Harlem, and was sent abroad to kill enemies of the American state, even as his game shows began to soar to ratings success. Originally published in 1982, Confessions of a Dangerous Mind has been out of print for a number of years, but interest in Barris is about to reach an all-time high, with a major movie based on the book coming from Miramax Films in December 2002. The all-star cast includes Sam Rockwell, Julia Roberts, George Clooney, Brad Pitt, and Drew Barrymore. Barris will be covered extensively in the media this fall. Confessions of a Dangerous Mind is a wild and improbable tale spiced with intrigue, sex, bad behavior, and plenty of one-liners.

Richard Jewell Marie Brenner,2019-12-10 Now a major film from Academy Award-winning director Clint Eastwood—starring Sam Rockwell, Kathy Bates, Jon Hamm, Olivia Wilde, and Paul Walter Hauser ! This collection of captivating profiles from Vanity Fair writer Marie Brenner spans her award-winning career and features larger-than-life figures such as Donald Trump, Roy Cohn, Malala Yousafzai, and Richard Jewell—the security guard whose dramatic heroism at the bombing of the 1996 Olympics made him the FBI's prime suspect. Previously published as A Private War, Marie Brenner's Richard Jewell tells a gripping true story of heroism and injustice. In the early morning hours of July 27, 1996, three pipe bombs exploded at the Summer Olympics in Atlanta, Georgia, killing one person and injuring 111 others. Hundreds more potential casualties were prevented by the vigilance and quick actions of security guard Richard Jewell, who uncovered the bombs and began evacuating the area. But no good deed goes unpunished. Desperate for a lead, investigators and journalists pursued Jewell as a potential suspect in the case, painting him as an obvious match for the infamous “lone bomber” profile. Accused of being a terrorist and a failed law enforcement officer who craved public recognition for his false heroics, he saw his reputation smeared across headlines and broadcasts nationwide. After a months-long investigation found no evidence against him, the US Attorney finally cleared Jewell's name. Yet Jewell would not be fully exonerated in the eyes of the public until the actual bomber confessed in 2005, just two years before Jewell's premature death at the age of forty-four. In Richard Jewell, veteran journalist Marie Brenner brilliantly chronicles Jewell's ordeal to share the story of an ordinary man whose life was shattered by a false narrative. This collection also includes Brenner's classic encounters with Donald Trump, Roy Cohn, Malala Yousafzai, Marie Colvin, and others.

Fool for Love & the Sad Lament of Pecos Bill Sam Shepard,2021-01-06 In Fool For Love, situated at a seedy motel on the edge of the Mojave Desert, transient lovers May and Eddie spin around in a room in a relentless struggle for power and truth. Through recollections and dreams, multiple versions of a fierce and fatal love story are told. The Sad Lament of Pecos Bill on the Eve of Killing His Wife, another kind of love story in the form of a comic operetta, takes a distaff view of the Southwest's legendary cowpuncher and his mate Slue-foot Sue, with irreverent commentary on American heroes and heroics. No one knows better than Sam Shepard that the true American West is gone forever, but there may be no writer alive more gifted at reinventing it out of pure literary air. - Frank Rich, The New York Times Mr. Shepard is the most deeply serious humorist of the American theater, and a poet with no use whatever for the 'poetic.' He brings fresh news of love, here and now, in all its potency and deviousness and foolishness, and of many other matters as well. -Edith Oliver, The New Yorker Sam Shepard (1943) is a playwright, actor, author, screen writer, and director whose work is performed on and off Broadway and in other theaters across the country. In 1979, he received the Pulitzer Prize for Drama for his play Buried Child. In 1983, he was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor in The Right Stuff. His other famous works include True West, A Lie of the Mind, and Curse of the Starving Class.

Identity Keystones: Jessie Cruickshank,Aaron Friesen,Evelyn Hernandez,Steve Overman,Leah Payne,Jeff Roper,Matt Temple,Karen Tremper,Sam Rockwell,2017-06-14 Ninety years ago, in 1927, the Foursquare Movement was birthed

through the ministry of Aimee Semple McPherson. Based on her historical context and what was accepted by the church culture at the time, Sister Aimee was clearly a phenomena. Regardless of the cultural and theological restraints placed upon her, she pursued her task. What is my task? she asked rhetorically. To get the gospel around the world in the shortest possible time to every man and woman and boy and girl. Through her unique, pioneering style she trained up missionaries and sent out church planters across the United States and into several countries. Today the Foursquare Church is in over 150 nations and numbers over 75,000 churches. The Identity Keystones of the Foursquare Church as a movement are as unique as its founder. By applying principles of organization identity theory Sam Rockwell identified five domains of expertise of the Foursquare Church. These are: Integrated Mission, Women in Senior Leadership, Pentecostal Ethos, Indigenous Empowerment, and Moderation/Middle of the Road Policy. A group of contributors have partnered with Rockwell to cover each of the domains and to bring application to ministers of the Foursquare Gospel. As Rockwell states in his introduction, As we respond to a postmodern landscape and a post-Christian culture in the United States, it is more urgent than ever to consider how the Foursquare identity uniquely prepares us for this emerging and challenging era ahead...The aspects of 'who we are' and 'what we do' are more relevant than ever.
