Scarlet Lady Sara Wood,2011-08-22 The Hon. Leo and his Scarlet Lady! Ginny loved her modeling career, just as she had always loved Leo Brandon. His pretend reason: to prevent Ginny dishonoring his precious family name again through any association with the infamous St. Honoré. His real reason: to love, protect and remarry the woman he had once let go. Three women are looking for their family –what they truly seek is love. The Crimson Gardenia and Other Tales of Adventure Rex Beach,2014-09-13 The royal yacht had anchored amid a thunder of cannon, and the king had gone ashore. The city was bright with bunting; a thousand whistles blew. Up through the festooned streets His Majesty was escorted between long rows of blue-coated officers, behind which the eager crowds were massed for mile upon mile. Thin wire cables were stretched along the curbs, to hold the people back, but these threatened to snap before the weight of the multitude. In the neighborhood of the raised pavilion where the queen and her maids of honor waited, the press was thickest; here rows of stands had been erected that groaned beneath their freight, while roof-tops and windows, trees and telegraph-poles, were black with clustered humanity. The king was tall and dark; a long beard hid his face. But the queen was young and blushing, and her waiting-women were fairer than springtime flowers. To a crashing martial air, she handed him a sparkling goblet in which he pledged her happiness, while the street rocked to the roar of many voices, and in the open spaces youths, grotesquely costumed, danced with goblin glee.
