A chance discovery of a muddy relic on the shores of a disappearing lake puts a lethal banshee, the Irish messenger of death, on his tail. The banshee tracks Connor back to New York City and she is soon in league with an ancient Dutch demon that last terrorized the city during the American Revolution. The next thing Connor knows he is mixed up with a giant bounty hunter who converses with voices only he hears, a mysterious redhead with a secret, otherworldly agenda, a band of heavily-armed Iroquois warriors with an old grudge, and an ICE federal agent desperate to make an arrest. I Was a Screamer Francine Proulx,2021 This story is one that needs to be told. I was raised in the shadow of my mother's love and madness in Québec. Towards the end of 1970, I escaped to England and Ireland where I stayed for 20 years. There, I fell head-first, heart-first, I should say, into the famous Atlantis Commune nicknamed 'The Screamers'. I wish to tell you about the breathtaking pulse, the pain, the joy, the Truth and the scars that lie in the depths of this uncompromising land. If you care to read further, I can also tell you about prison, food addiction, living in the wilds, adoption, teaching and being an astrologer. This is a deep and honest tale about our common quest for self-love and trust in our own sacred path. Welcome!
